YEARS OF CRUISING

Skipper Planning Farewell Song

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Sometime near the end of March or early April, the 40-foot cutter Armorel will leave Sausalito and head for the Golden Gate and the open sea.

If you listen carefully, you might hear a very familiar voice raised in song. It will be Glenn R. Yarbrough, 34, of 71 Woodward Avenue, folk singer turned skipper.

He and three other Marinites will be starting a voyage 'round the world, a voyage that will take three to five years.

"It's something I've wanted to do all my life," Yarbrough said. The singer, one of the original Limeliter trio, explained that money from his singing finally made the trip possible.

Yarbrough's first blue-water sailing came in August when he sailed a ship from Hawaii to the States. This was a 22-day trip.

But, if Skipper Yarbrough finds himself light on experience, he will have the experience of his crewmen to help him.

There is Frank Wharton, 40, of Sausalito, who has worked around boats and at boat repair for 15 years; and there is Sandy Lentz, 29, of Sausalito, a commercial fisherman. The third man is Ray Jackson, 23, of 404 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon, until recently a student at College of Marin.

The Armorel, built in England in 1935, was sailed by her first owner across the Atlantic, through the Panama Canal and up the Pacific Coast. Yarbrough and his crew will reverse this track when they leave Sausalito.

The singer will stop in Los Angeles to cut a final record for RCA. Then he will take the ship down the Mexican Coast to Panama and into the Caribbean, where he plans some leisurely cruising.

Upon arriving in the Caribbean, Yarbrough will send for his wife, Peggy, and two children, Stephanie, 3, and Sean, 5.

"Plans after that are pretty much up in the air," Yarbrough said.

Part of the urge to take the trip is escapism, but he intends to keep his position as one of America's leading young folk singers.

"If I have to, I will fly back to cut more records," he said. His final recording before departure, which he refers to as his farewell song, will have a card in the jacket for purchasers to fill out and mail in if they want a regular newsletter on the voyage of the Armorel.

Yarbrough will take with him a tape recorder to pick up native songs in his ports of call. And he hopes the long watches in the silence of the open sea will inspire him with new ideas.

The Limeliters, formed in 1959, was successful because of its spontaneous approach. Repetitions night after night, however, tended to make it all seem stale to Yarbrough. He left the group July 13 during a performance before an audience of 11,000 in Denver.

"I'll never forget it," Yarbrough said. The split-up was his idea and he explained that he has no regrets. "I like singing alone much more," he said.

The Limeliters have added a replacement and are still in business. Yarbrough has been making solo appearances on television and cutting solo records.

The night club circuit, Yarbrough said, is a "rat race," one he is glad to be leaving.

The Armorel, which has a 25-horsepower auxiliary motor, can carry 1,000 square feet of sail. This week it is in dry dock at Seaway Marine, San Rafael, where Yarbrough and his crewmen have been busy sanding, painting and refitting.

"It's a lot of work," Yarbrough said.

His clothes were spotted with paint and sanding dust and he wore two or three days' growth of beard. But there was a smile on his face and a happy, far-off look in his eyes.

REED IS DUE 45-CENT TAX; LARKSPUR BOND VOTE SET

Third Attempt In Year For School Funds

The Larkspur School District board last night voted to call an election for June 2 on a 60-cent tax rate increase and $375,000 bond issue election on June 2.

The election will be the third attempt within a year to gain additional funds. Voters in the district defeated a $700,000 bond issue and 85-cent tax increase last June 4 and a $375,000 bond issue Jan. 14.

The board last night drastically cut programs in the district for the next fiscal year to come up with a $55,000 saving to balance the $919,315,000 preliminary budget.

The summer school session, held at one of the schools for 450 students, was eliminated.

The 16-year dental hygiene program was cut out. Dental hygienists Marguerite Siemens and Lynda Nichols will be released.

Five new teachers were to be hired to match the growth of the district. The board approved hiring three.

The nursing program will be cut in half. Mrs. Jean Beam, school nurse, will be released.

The vocal music program was cut off. This will result in the termination of employment of Mrs. Rosaline Wong.

Two custodians, as yet undetermined, will be released.

The board agreed to cut out its contribution of $1,700 toward the Larkspur-Corte Madera recreation commission budget, although the district will still make playground fa-

RUSS DEMAND DEFECTOR BE RETURNED

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union today demanded the immediate return of Soviet Defector Yuri I. Nossenko and accused Switzerland of permitting "foreign agents" to engineer his disappearance.

The United States said he defected and asked for asylum.

Soviet ambassador Semyon K. Tsarapkin told a news conference Moscow expects Switzerland to use its sovereign rights in asking for Nossenko's return.

Marin Board And Court Sued Over 'Token' Redistrict

Marin County's board of supervisors and superior court were confronted today with a petition in the State Supreme Court demanding more extensive reapportionment of supervisorial districts.

"We feel that they haven't done enough," said John P. Rooney, Larkspur attorney, whose original suit forced what he called a "token" redistricting by the board.

A petition for writ of mandate was filed in the supreme court by Rooney yesterday against the board and Marin Superior Court. It asks the high court to order Marin court and board to "establish supervisorial districts as nearly equal in population as may be . . . with a ratio of the largest to the least populations within dis-

School Board Plans To Levy Overide Tax

The Reed School District board last night declared its intention to levy a 45-cent override tax to offset added costs to seventh and eighth grade programs.

The board delayed action on another requested override tax to pay staff health and welfare benefits.

The seventh-eighth grade special tax is allowed under new legislation without voter approval. The increase will bring Reed District's total tax rate for next fiscal year to $3.28 per $100 assessed valuation, highest of any elementary school district in Marin County.

Although Reed district was the first in Marin to levy an override tax under the new legislation, other districts may follow suit. A query to the Marin County school superintendent's office elicited the reply that most districts are considering the tax, according to Supt. Edward C. Pino.

Gordon Russell, Reedlands resident, said in so many words he did not approve of the override tax. After 10 minutes of querying by Trustees David R. Ring and Leo Souza, Russell still didn't want it.

"When will the overide tax take effect?" asked Mrs. Robert Barth, "and for how long will it be levied?"

"July 1, 1964 and for one year," replied Trustee Marilyn Steinau.

Mrs. Barth asked further, "In principle, would you ever need another tax election?"

In the meantime Ring had suggested, "I think we should eliminate the buses."

Elmer Fraass, Belvedere resident, cried, "Threat!"

Ring said, "The only way you can get people down here is to talk about cutting out buses."

Lent Begun

The beginning of Lent was marked in Marin churches today with Ash Wednesday services. The 40-day period of penitence will continue until Easter, March 29.

SMOKING REPORT

Students Won't Kick The Habit

By LINDA SIEM
Drake High School Student

"Smoke, smoke, smoke, that cigarette"—and 54 per cent of polled students at Sir Francis Drake High School do.

Although the president's commission reported that cigarette smoking is definitely linked with lung cancer, 80 per cent of these smokers plan to continue.

Statistics compiled by teacher Pat Bagley's English-journalism class indicate that the percentage of smokers steadily increases as the students grow older. While only 42 per cent of freshmen smoke, 43 per cent of sophomores, 62 per cent of the juniors and 68 per cent of seniors, are addicted.

In all classes at least three-fourths of the smokers plan to continue the habit.

One-fourth of Drake's 1,612 student body was polled. Results are recorded in the accompanying chart.

New parking lot policy will force the smoking students to

Teachers Will Police In Redwood Crackdown

Redwood High School teachers have been assigned to police 11 locations at the school in a crackdown on smoking, locker prowling, littering, "inappropriate boy-girl behavior" and other student offenses.

Principal Donald Kreps, announcing the crackdown yesterday, said the policing will be before and after school and during the morning break and lunch hour, as well as between classes.

In issuing instructions to teachers, he said: "These instructions are intended to provide positive controls . . . to protect the student from injury or harm, to promote a constructive attitude toward responsible citizenship, to be preventive in nature . . ."

He listed as in need of correction smoking, littering, running in the halls, lateness, inappropriate boy-girl behavior, use of foul language, and suspicious behavior such as students attempting to gain entry into lockers and rooms where they don't belong.

Teachers will be stationed at

Family Marooned On Pacific Island

On Hunt For Lost Vessel

A former Inverness family is marooned on a tiny island in the mid-Pacific after an unsuccessful search for a lost vessel.

Stranded on Vahanga Island, about 150 miles northwest of Manga Reva in the Tuamotus, are Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Griffith and Mrs. Griffith's eight-year-old son, Reid.

CAUGHT IN SQUALL

They were searching for a trace of the missing yacht Astrea when they were caught in a squall and shipwrecked on the island.

Word of the wreck came in a letter Monday to Griffith's daughter, Mrs. Robert Eldred of Fairfax.

In the letter dated "Jan. 23 I think," Mrs. Griffith wrote, "About six nights ago we struck the reef in a blinding squall and we were driven in by the waves before we could do anything."

53-FOOT CUTTER

Their 53-foot cutter Awahnee was on the leeward side of the island when it was sucked into the shore by a reverse current, she said. The Awahnee was smashed to small pieces, but

HOFFA'S DEFENSE ADMITS 'SPYING'

Attorney Says Wiretapper Kept Tabs On Federal Agents Watching Teamsters

COMBINED UPI & AP

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—The defense in the jury tampering trial of James R. Hoffa admitted today it had employed a wiretapper to spy on government agents.

Defense attorney Jacques Schiffer told Federal Judge Frank Wilson that a "professional wiretapper," Bernard Spindel, was hired as "an aid to the court."

Spindel filed an affidavit yesterday stating that he had spied on government agents and learned, in the process that the government was spying on the defendants.

Hoffa and five other persons are charged with attempts to bribe and influence jurors in the Teamster chief's 1962 trial in Nashville on conspiracy charges.

The defense contends that the government has hamstrung its efforts in the jury tampering trial by keeping both lawyers and defendants under "surveillance."

Hoffa, at an impromptu session with newsmen yesterday, charged the government with using stakeouts, motion picture cameras and armed federal agents to carry out the alleged surveillance."

Partin testified for two days for the government and under four and one-half days of defense cross-examination.

Partin was the only prosecution witness so far to link the Teamsters Union president with alleged efforts to fix Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial jury.

Span 'Leaper' Missing, But May Be Alive

James Merriam, 22-year-old Firebaugh, Fresno County, man who was reported to have jumped off the Golden Gate Bridge, may not have leaped at all, but was still missing today, according to San Francisco police and the California Highway Patrol.

A taxicab driver, Joseph Mitroff, said he picked up Merriam at a bar in San Francisco and said he saw the man leap from the bridge at 12:20 a.m. yesterday after he stopped the cab on the span. He said Merriam had complained of being sick.

But Merriam's father, Jack Merriam, Firebaugh farm supplies dealer, told police there he had received a phone call from his son at 1 p.m. yesterday, over 12 hours after the leap. He said the caller reported he was "all right" and then hung up.

A Coast Guard search failed to find a body. Highway patrol officers said the man might have landed on a girder below the railing and climber back onto the bridge and walked away later.

A VALENTINE FOR CAROLINE

First grade students at St. Thomas Aquinas School in Dallas today hold the giant Valentine they prepared for Caroline Kennedy. The four-foot card is too large for the mails so a picture of it plus a letter from each pupil will be mailed to the daughter of the late President John F. Kennedy. Sister Rosaline, instructor, said the children wanted to do something at Christmas time to express their feelings but thought it better to wait; then they came up with the idea for the large greeting. Peace To Poverty—Johnson Gives Marathon Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — For 25 minutes and 3,500 chosen words, President Lyndon B. Johnson held forth on such a sweep of subjects as bellyaches and bathrooms, peace and poverty.

Since he was talking to field officers of the Internal Revenue Service, he also mentioned taxpayers and tax collectors. But that was just a starting point for a ramble through domestic and foreign fields.

Along the way there were cracks at critics of his handling of foreign policy, and assurances that "we are a much beloved people throughout the world"—that we are respected and appreciated "regardless of what some of the bellyachers say."

The president held forth in the East Room of the White House yesterday on home, election day, wife, mother, the Golden Rule (three times), national defense, the budget, waste, poverty, civil rights, turning out lights, public service and his regard for his Treasury secretary.

Also: Cuba, Laos, Vienna, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Red China, Panama, the U.S. plane shot down over East Germany, Viet Nam, changes in 50 of the world's 113 governments, Dwight D. Eisenhower, foreign aid, disarmament—

And a conclusion that: "We can't be satisfied with yesterday. Tomorrow is going to be a better world for all of our people."

The president started out using notes typed on cards, ran out of those, then kept going in chatty, off-hand fashion.

Some things he said:

"Taxpayers are people." Taxes must be collected efficiently, courteously and honestly.

"Every man is king in the ballot box."

"It took us 40 days and nights to pare and prune" the budget.

"My mother always had some pin money hid under the pillow."

Put yourselves in the place of the other fellow in considering poverty—and discrimination.

"One of the great ladies that I have known is kind of chief of staff of our house. She has been with us 20 years, she is a college graduate, but when she comes from Texas to Washington she never knows where she can get a cup of coffee. She never knows when she can go to a bathroom."

The White House light bill is down from $5,000 to $3,000 a month. "You go back home and see how much electricity you can save in the building in which you work."

"We have problems in the world" but "I have seen times when the skies were grayer."

"We cannot expect to mash a button and have our wishes carried out all over this globe."

"Even in our own country we do not see everything alike. If we did, we would all want the same wife—and that would be a problem, wouldn't it?"

DIPLOMATIC BALL

President Outdances Striped-Pants Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson proved he can outdance the best of Washington's diplomatic corps.

He hardly missed a dance in close to two hours and was still twirling in the East Ballroom when the last of his ambassadorial guests had left a gala White House reception last night.

A Marine Corps jazz combo, playing everything from cha-cha-cha and samba to Dixieland kept the tunes short so the president could get around.

He danced with the wives of many ambassadors—including the wife of Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin.

His favorite partners seemed to be women reporters assigned to cover the 7 to 9 p.m. White House party for some 400 diplomats and their wives. At least a dozen of the reporters were summoned by the president for a turn on the dance floor.

Polled afterwards about the president's dancing ability, they rated him from "not bad" to "very good."

Mrs. Johnson, who had been in bed for two days with a virus flu attack, gamely stood in the Blue Room receiving line with the president and Lynda to greet all the guests, including new ambassadors from Peru, Sweden, Libya and the Dominican Republic, who presented their credentials as they went through.

Then, she and the president started the dancing. Mrs. Johnson wore two white orchids on her two-piece white silk dress.

Cranston Answers Whitehead With The Bald Facts

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Controller Alan Cranston made a major pronouncement today.

"I have decided to stay bald," he said.

A letter signed by Herbert H. Whitehead of Long Beach suggested, from experience, that "a headpiece has a softening effect on one's countenance."

"I think that a headpiece could materially advance your prospects for the United States Senate or higher state office," Whitehead wrote.

Cranston, a Democrat, replied that a hairpiece is not for him.

"I don't want to deny the Birch Society the privilege of calling me an egghead," he said.

Shutoff Costs Castro U.S. Dollars

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Edwin Tetlow, British correspondent, spent six days at the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo after Cuba cut off the water supply American newsmen since have been prevented by the government from going to the base and Tetlow was flown out yesterday to Jamaica.)

By EDWIN TETLOW
London Daily Telegraph

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — Fidel Castro only pinpricked the Americans but dealt himself out of precious U.S. dollars with his water cutoff of the naval base at Guantanamo Bay in eastern Cuba.

Water facilities at the U.S. base were almost back to normal only seven days after Castro turned off the taps in retaliation for the seizure of Cuban fishermen charged with fishing inside Florida waters.

By improvisation and with abundant help from Jamaica, the Americans now have enough water for everything except washing cars, watering lawns or wasteful uses. Abandoned was the strict rationing that gave them water only three times a day for periods of one hour each in the first days of the crisis.

Castro's action deprived him of $14,000 a month under a contract for the water. The speed with which he had been cashing this regular American check testified to the pinch caused by the shortage of U.S. currency.

It appears that the Americans are not going to use Castro's water again even if it should be offered. The plan is to make the base completely self-sufficient.

Millions of gallons of water had been stored at Guantanamo for just such an emergency. The American community of 10,000 persons, including 2,500 women and children, was prepared when Castro cut the pipeline from the Yateras River five miles away.

More than a week's supply was on hand when the water was cut off and more water is on the way.

Court Order Halts Space Job Pickets

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—A federal court order, issued just before midnight, has halted union picketing which had stopped 213-million-dollars worth of construction on Cape Kennedy and the adjacent Merritt Island moonport.

U.S. Dist. Judge George C. Young issued a temporary restraining order requested by the National Labor Relations Board. The ruling directed the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, (AFL-CIO) to withdraw picket lines.

The action opened the way for 3,200 construction workers who had honored the lines to return to work.

Key Figure In Vice Ring Dies In Fire

MINEOLA, N.Y. (UPI)—Nassau County police today awaited an autopsy report in the fiery death of a key witness in a suburban housewife sex ring probe.

Suicide was definitely ruled out in the death of Edmond M. Nugent, 49, whose charred body was found in his burning automobile yesterday.

Nugent, a part owner of the Jericho Lounge in Jericho, was described by Nassau County Dist. Atty. William Cahn as a "very important figure" in the investigation of an alleged $200,000 a year call-girl operation. Cahn, who ruled out suicide as cause of death, said:

"We do not know whether it was accidental or homicidal, but we do know that he was alive and breathing when the fire broke out."

Fourth Woman In Month Strangled

MONTEREY (AP)—Eighteen-year-old Barbara Jane Morritz became the fourth woman in less than one month to be strangled to death in Northern California, Monterey County Coroner Christopher Hill said last night.

Her bra was twisted tightly around her throat, the coroner said in his preliminary autopsy report.

Barbara had been missing since Sunday. She was found on a lonely dead-end road between Monterey and Salinas yesterday afternoon.

Coast Guard Accepts Yacht

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The Coast Guard took the former presidential yacht of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt off Elvis Presley's hands yesterday.

Presley bought the historic "Potomac" at auction for $55,000 two weeks ago and announced he would give it to the March of Dimes as a memorial to President Roosevelt, who founded the national charity organization.

March of Dimes officials had to refuse the gift because they felt it would be wrong to use contributions from the public for upkeep.

Presley announced yesterday that he would give the vessel to the Seventh Coast Guard District Auxiliary at Miami, Fla. It will be sailed there from its present berth at Long Beach, Calif., by the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Child Allergic To Pet? New Type Shot Helps

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Allergic reactions need no longer force separation of children and their pets, says a New York City physician.

Dr. Mathilde M. Gould, chief of the pediatric allergy clinic of Lenox Hill Hospital in New York, call such separations "petectomies."

A new type of allergy shot to prevent "petectomies" was successful in treatment of 25 patients strongly allergic to dogs, cats and horses, Dr. Gould told colleagues at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Allergy, which ended today.

The treatment failed with one patient in the series, she said.

In the past, Dr. Gould said, pets had to be removed from the vicinity of patients being treated with water-based extracts of skin, hair and dander from pets. And the shots generally "failed to yield satisfactory clinical results," she added, for patients who had watery eyes, runny noses and asthma from exposure to animals.

Dr. Gould said pets were left with patients receiving the new extract — Allpyral, for alum precipitated pyridine antigens — and the patient became symptom-free.

Oklahoma City now ranks as the largest city in area in the United States with 631 square miles.

POLICE CAR LANDS IN DITCH

Patrolman Michael Fisher, 22, who has been on the San Rafael police force only six months, was out on patrol at 6:45 a.m. today when his police car ran off Woodland Avenue and landed in a ditch just south of Auburn Street. Fisher, who lives at 2505 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, escaped with only a nose bleed. The California Highway Patrol investigated the accident and reported the patrolman may have dozed at the wheel.

Man Accused Of Three Bay Knife Deaths Held

OAKLAND (UPI) — A man believed responsible for four unprovoked stabbings — three of them fatal — on Oakland and San Francisco streets in the past week was arrested at gunpoint early today.

The suspect, Clarence Hardy, 33, claiming to be an ex-Marine drawing a disability pension, was picked up by Police Inspectors Matt Roehl and Jack Froeming outside his room.

He was clutching a bone-handled hunting knife with a four-inch blade which police said was used to kill three Oakland men and wound a Richmond man.

"I just couldn't control myself. I had an urge to kill," the officers quoted him as saying.

He was booked for investigation of murder.

Police said his victims were Jack Woodard, 36, Roscoe Belcher, 43, and George Robert Gilson, 67 all of Oakland. They said he also wounded Harry G. King, 61, Richmond, when he attacked the man in San Francisco.

ISLAND

all three aboard were uninjured.

The Griffiths salvaged some hardware, canned food, both skiffs, clothes, sails and instruments.

The island, an atoll about 10 feet above sea level, was inhabited only by two Polynesians engaged in making copra. "The only vegetation to speak of is a coconut tree," Mrs. Griffith wrote.

She got the letter away on a boat that stopped at the island. The family will stay, making packing boxes for salvageable items, and take the next boat that calls—in about three months to reach Papeete, Tahiti.

The Griffiths had been searching since last December for the yacht Astrea, which left Mexico last June on a voyage to the Marquesas Islands and Tahiti, but was never heard from again.

The Astrea, carried a crew of five: four men and a woman, including James Sunseri, 22-year-old son of Dr. James Sunseri of San Jose.

In December, Dr. Sunseri hired the Griffiths, who were cruising in the Pacific, to search for the missing yacht. The family and a crew of four started on the search for wreckage in the Marquesas, but the crew was not aboard for the latest run that ended in the shipwreck.

The Griffiths have been on a world cruise since early last year, sailing out of Marshall.

They had a prior close call when they ran aground on a reef off Gibraltar and had to be towed to port, Mrs. Eldred reported.

The Griffiths were making their third tour of the Pacific aboard the Awahnee. In 1959 they sailed it to the Marquesas Islands and in 1961 they entered the Tasman Sea race between Australia and New Zealand.

tricts not exceeding three to one."

Hasty redistricting by the board on Jan. 31 resulted in an increase in the West Marin District 4 population from 1.7 to 3.9 of the total population. Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. approved the move in Marin Superior Court, calling it a "stopgap" measure.

Rooney, who has filed the suits on behalf on San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce officers, said the new suit before the supreme court will require an answer from the county before Feb. 20.

If redistricting is not extensive enough, the petition asks the court to impose one of these provisions:

1. Election at large of the supervisors until districts are reapportioned.

2. Establishment of a commission by the court to redistrict the county.

3. Redistricting of the county by the court itself.

Dixie School Trustees Due Auditing Report

Dixie School District trustees will receive a report on business and accounting by the district from the auditing firm of Dalton, Graupner and Barber at the board meeting at 8 p.m. today at the district office at 35 Trellis Drive, Marinwood.

The board will also consider the need for new school sites and make plans for summer school and a summer workshop.

The first domestic jet airline passenger service started in the United States, between New York and Miami, in December, 1958.

Monardo Files Papers For April 14

City Councilman George D. Monardo late yesterday became the first to file completed nomination papers for the April 14 city election in Mill Valley.

Monardo, who will complete his first four-year term in April, said today he has appointed Joseph L. Nannery Jr. as his campaign treasurer and Byron Reynolds as campaign coordinator.

A completed petition was filed yesterday at the Novato City Hall by J. Wayne Womack, Novato's first mayor, who will seek another city council term.

Womack, who did not run for re-election after his previous term expired, was the third to file a completed petition in Novato. The two other candidates are William Jack Adams and Douglas M. Merrill, who are running as a team backed by the Novato Citizens for Good Government.

BOND

cilities available for the after-school recreation program.

There will be no salary increase for any employee in the district, other than those contained in the present salary schedule, the board decided.

Supt. Milton S. Cohen said: "This is a black day for the children in the district. I feel it was a shame that the cuts had to be made."

Cohen said it would be up to the board to re-institute the deleted programs and personnel if the tax increase passes. The personnel, he said, have been notified that they will not be rehired.

The preliminary budget is $27,315 over this year's budget. Cohen said the increase will go mostly toward paying the salaries of the three new teachers.

Monies from the tax increase would go toward increased salaries for teachers "which are among the lowest in the county," according to Cohen. Also, the tax funds would be used for hiring new teachers to match the growth, and for supplies, building and equipment repairs and to augment the $2,000 reserve fund.

The bond money, the same amount as requested in the January election, would be used to build 10 to 12 new classrooms.

Blasts Bring Tiburon Calls

Tiburon residents were alarmed by an "air raid warnwarning" yesterday.

The Tiburon Fire Department siren, which doubles as air raid siren, let go in mid-day with long blasts which many thought were the signal of a raid.

Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher said he received "all sorts of calls all afternoon."

The explanation was simple: A short-circuit in the vicinity of Jefferson and Tiburon boulevards started the siren wailing.

Although many were alarmed, nobody packed up and fled, Buscher said.

Stabbing May Be Linked To Bias, Nazism

San Quentin Prison's latest stabbing may be part of a racist outbreak, possible connected with neo-Nazism, Warden Fred R. Dickson said today.

Five convicts were stabbed at the prison between Friday and Monday, but the warden said he was most concerned with Monday's stabbing of Stanley Owens, 27, of San Francisco.

Owens was in good condition today in the prison hospital, recovering from a knife wound between the shoulder blades. He is serving six months to life for possession of narcotics and an earlier knife attack on a fellow prisoner.

Dickson called Owens an agitator who headed a neo-Nazi gang prior to his prison sentencing.

"This one deeply concerns us, as we believe there may be a race problem involved," Dickson said. "We think a Negro did the stabbing, and if it is a racial situation, it will probably involve the Black Muslims."

Some of Owens' friends may "try to get even," the warden said. There are a number of different cliques at the prison, he said, including a so-called Nazi group.

Prison officials continued to investigate the other stabbings, involving one inmate last Saturday and three on Friday. The earlier incidents were apparently unrelated to the Owens stabbing, said Associate Warden Dale B. Frady. All four other victims were reported in good condition today.

Brown Says Delegation Pro-Johnson

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown announced today he will act at once to form an uninstructed but pro-Johnson California delegation to the Democratic national convention.

The Democratic governor said he will serve as chairman of the organizing committee that will choose the 314-member delegation.

California is entitled to 162 delegates, with 154 votes, plus 152 alternates.

Brown named two party leaders to work with him—Eugene Wyman of Los Angeles, Democratic state chairman, and Roger Kent of Kentfield, vice chairman.

The governor emphasized again that he would not be a favorite son candidate — as he was in 1960. A new state law, enacted in 1961, permits uninstructed delegations.

SMOKE

cut down. Principal Harold Allison has cracked down on smoking in parked cars.

Reporters stationed at the more populated areas asked students if they smoked, and if so, what action they plan to take as a result of the president's commission report.

The general reaction of the smokers was, "We were aware of the danger when we started, so why quit now?"

Some other reactions, not so general, were:

"My father got a lung disease from smoking so I'm not about to start."

"I have no great desire to get cancer."

"If the authorities want us to stop, why don't they set the example?"

The cloud of smoke over the parking lot will hopefully be dissolved, but will leave more than 50 per cent of the student body with idle nicotined fingers. It looks as if many Drakeites are smoking more now—but will soon be enjoying it less.

Death Row Inmates Sent To Hearing

Three San Quentin Prison convicts who have been on Death Row more than two years were transferred last week to Los Angeles County Jail for a special court hearing, prison officials disclosed today.

The condemned men, Donald Franklin, Joseph Rosoto and John Vlahovich, were convicted of plotting the 1959 murder of Anaheim tavern owner Leslie Simpson.

Associate Warden Dale B. Frady said the men will appear Monday before a referee appointed by the State Supreme Court for a review of their case. A fourth conspirator, who actually did the killing, is supposedly still at large.

The men were transferred in a Los Angeles County sheriff's station wagon under heavy guard. Frady said the prison has had no word as to how long the hearing may last or when the men will be returned.

Car Is Stolen

Michael Kilijian of San Francisco reported to Sausalito police yesterday that his car, a 1963 Chevrolet two-door Impala, was stolen from Bridgeway and Turney Street Sunday. Kilijian is employed at Zack's By-The-Bay at the same address.

San Anselmo Acts To Stop Creek Flooding

The San Anselmo City Council moved last night to stop flooding in the Alameda-Deer Hollow Road area, reportedly caused by the piping in of a creek.

Two residents told councilmen their property was flooded last month because builder Harry Johnson of Marin Home Investment Builders, Mill Valley, filled the creek bed and put in a 30-inch concrete pipe.

They also charged that Johnson acted without filing his plan with the city.

David H. Baird of 120 Deer Hollow Road, Sleepy Hollow, said three acres were flooded Jan. 20. Rudolph Eichenbaum of 106 Deer Hollow Road said his lawn was covered with flowing water.

Both men said there was no flooding before Johnson installed the pipe, which they feel is inadequate.

After they reported that Johnson was going to build over the pipeline, the council issued a stop order on the building, and authorized the City Engineer Richard Sypher to investigate the pipeline.

The council also received a letter from Dr. Edward F. Healey protesting "the inadequacy of the culvert under the fill on the Alameda." He said it could not handle the recent rains and resulted in flooding of his lots.

The council passed a resolution designed to halt the storage of trucks in the city parking lot on the former Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way between Ross and Bolinas avenues.

The resolution prohibits truck parking on the right-of-way from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m.

Councilmen again turned down a request by the parks and recreation commission to send Commissioner Paul Brann to the California and Southwest Parks and Recreation Conference at Anaheim.

Councilman William Franchini said it would set a precedent to send a commissioner and he didn't think it would be worth the expense involved. "I'd rather spend the money on a backstop or something useful," he said.

Last week the council voted 3-2 to deny the trip. The commission appealed that decision last night.

Later in the meeting the council authorized City Administrator Douglas Flautt to attend a conference of city managers in Palm Springs next Wednesday through Friday, at cost not to exceed $175.

"This is different," said Franchini. "Sending a city employee is different than sending a board member."

The San Anselmo City Council also:

1. Approved installation of a street light at a turn in the 179-181 section of Spring Grove Avenue, requested by Kurt H. Hilmer of 179 Spring Grove Avenue.
2. Appointed Bernard Roarty, top man on the examination, as city equipment operator for a six-month probationary period.
3. Adopted ordinances rezoning a lot owned by Anna M. Ghezzi on Tunstead Avenue from duplex to commercial and a lot owned by Robert Hood on Cedar Street from single family to duplex.
4. Postponed action on the disability retirement of Rocco Joseph Duranto, street department maintenance man, because of the absence of City Atty. John G. Buresh, who was ill.

Tiburon Fire Board Appoints S. H. Nash

Directors of the Tiburon Fire Protection District last night appointed Steven H. Nash of Taylor Road as a member of the board to fill the unexpired term of Fred Hannahs, whose resignation was accepted last month. The term runs until April of 1965.

Fireman Lawrence Bogel was granted a leave of absence for two years to serve in the Army. He will be inducted in April. The board agreed to hire John Grbac to replace Bogel starting April 1. Grbac is now finishing four years with the Navy and will be discharged at the end of March. He was a volunteer fireman prior to his Navy hitch.

Cable Cut Halts 650 Phones In Del Mar Estates

A post hole augur cut a telephone cable on the Del Mar School site at 12:30 p.m. yesterday, cutting phone service for 650 users.

Telephone service was off from 12:30 p.m. to about 4 p.m. for the majority of the users. Complete service was restored at 11:30 p.m., reported Charles F. Berlenbach Jr., Southern Marin manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

A crew of 17 worked all night on repairs and continued all day today to make permanent repairs, he said.

Joe Messina, foreman for San Jose Steel Co., San Jose, severed the cable while running a truck-mounted augur to dig a post hole for a steel fence around the school playfield on Arenida Mira Flores.

The area losing phone service, according to Berlenbach, was that of Del Mar Estates reaching up to Trestle Glen.

Belvedere Rec Elects Mrs. Norma Bunker

The Belvedere Recreation Commission last night elected Mrs. Norma Bunker, Peninsula Road resident as secretary.

The commission discussed possibilities for additional recreation for the community's young people, said Mrs. M. W. Neal.

New Glenwood School Sets Date For Opening

Pupils will invade Glenwood School on the afternoon of Feb. 28.

The invasion date was set last night by Supt. Bert C. Corona of San Rafael Schools.

All but kindergarten pupils, who attend San Pedro School, will move into the new Glenwood School. Corona said the kindergarten room at Glenwood will not be furnished until next fall.

Other pupils from the Glenwood area have been taken by bus to E Street School, Corona said the buses will deliver the pupils to Glenwood School Feb. 28 after classes. From the school, they will be able to walk home.

School staff will work through the weekend making the move and on Monday, March 2, regular classes will start in Glenwood.

The San Rafael Board of Education last night set 2 p.m., Feb. 24 for its final inspection of the new school.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Heard optimistic reports from Mrs. Allene N. Anderson and Frank M. Parker, bond committee chairmen, on work to get out the vote next Tuesday when the fate of $3,970,000 in elementary district bonds will be decided.
2. Put off for further discussion the question of days off for classified employees. The question came up after Corona said Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and the Fourth of July all fall on Saturdays this year and would not ordinarily provide days off unless the board takes some action.
3. Delayed until next Tuesday discussion of conversion of classrooms to science laboratories at Terra Linda High School. Corona showed how eight laboratories could be provided in a wing that now has seven rooms. Cost estimates have not been completed.
4. Approved expansion next school year of the electronics course at San Rafael High School. Cost will be $13,250, half of which will be provided through the National Defense Education Act.
5. Saw a report on physical education budgets for next fiscal year estimating $16,657 for equipment and supplies at San Rafael High School and $17,744 at Terra Linda High School.
6. Received with thanks the donation of 35 science and mathematics books to the San Rafael High School Library from Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Paterson, retired high school teachers.
7. Accepted the resignations, effective June 30 of Frank J. Romano, mathematics teacher at Terra Linda High School, and Mrs. Marion Rouble, first grade teacher at West End School.
8. Adjourned until 9 p.m. next Tuesday at which time board members expect to start hearing results of the bond election.

Board member Carl J. Brown was absent.

Helicopter Service Set To Start

Helicopter passenger service between Marin County and San Francisco International Airport will begin at 7 a.m. Saturday.

Eighteen 14-minute flights between the two points will be made daily, M. F. Bagan, president of the SFO Helicopter Airlines Inc., announced.

The newly completed Marin County heliport is located south of the Stinson Beach turnoff from Highway 101, near the Commodore Aviation building.

Free parking will be provided to passengers of the new, 10-passenger, jet-powered Sikorsky S-62 helicopters, Bagan said.

Local fare for the flight between Marin and the airport will be $9.50 plus tax, but when connecting with cross-country flights of major airlines, the helicopter portion of the fare will be about $5.50. The company will also offer sightseeing flights.

Fire Rating Study Due Terra Linda

A new study for a fire insurance rating will be made by the Pacific Fire Rating Bureau in Terra Linda within six months, Fire Commissioner Richard R. Flaherty told directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District last night.

The board agreed to promote fireman George Walser to lieutenant and assistant training officer with $500 monthly salary.

Public Works Commissioner Richard Drosendahl reported County Public Works Director Donald Frost has agreed to request money in the next county budget for landscaping Manuel T. Freitas Parkway and to help pay for a traffic signal at Freitas and Las Gallinas Avenue.

Directors set a special joint meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow with directors of the Terra Linda Recreation and Parks District to discuss a planned newsletter and proposed annexations to the districts.

Action was taken to consolidate the district election with the June 2 primary.

Market Closes At High Point; Trading Active

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today in active trading.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.6 million shares compared with 4.05 million yesterday.

Gains of fractions to a point or so outnumbered losers.

Big three motors, drugs, savings-and-loans and cigar manufacturers were among the gainers.

American Telephone and its when-issued rights to buy one share for every 20 was held open an hour late due to accumulated demand. The rights opened on a monster block of 2 million at 2 9-32 and improved fractionally. AT&T common was 2 points higher.

Ling-Temco-Vought, up nearly a point, looked like the most active issue as it responded to news it had been picked by the Navy to make a new plane.

General Dynamics, yesterday's most-active issue, continued strong, rising about a point. AT&T was close to the top in volume of trading.

As the savings-and-loans continued their rally, gains of a point or better were made by Wesco, United Financial of California and Financial Federation.

Cigar manufacturers met another spate of demand. Bayuk and General Cigar rose about a point each, D. W. G. Cigar more than a point and Consolidated Cigar about 2.

Merck, Polaroid and Control Data also gained about 2 each.

Xerox slipped more than a point.

DuPont was a 1-point loser. Pan American World Airways, Kennecott and U. S. Smelting rose more than a point each.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange moved generally higher in fairly active trading.

Corporate bonds were mixed. There was no trading in government bonds because of the Lincoln's birthday holiday.

Dividend Declared

BURBANK—The board of directors of Stainless Steele Products, Inc., was declared a 50 per cent stock dividend, payable March 17, to shareholders of record March 3 on on the 337,085 common shares outstanding.

TAX FACTS

Should You File Joint U. S. Return

By P. J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Should you file a joint Federal return?

If you were married on Dec. 31, 1963 you may file joint income tax returns with your spouse regardless of how long a time you have been married and regardless of whether or not your spouse has income.

P. J. Wikel

If your net taxable income is over $2,000 a joint return will result in a lower tax.

In making a joint return you include all the income, exemptions and deductions of both the husband and wife. In heading the return you list both names.

For instance: John J. and Mary M. Doe. Also, you show both social security numbers and both occupations if both have income. It is not necessary that both have income in order to file a joint return.

Husband and wife must both sign and date a joint return. Each assumes the responsibility for any tax due. If one does not pay, then the other must. If you are entitled to a refund, the check will be issued in both names and both will have to endorse the check before cashing.

In some cases it is not possible to secure the signature of your spouse directly on the tax return. It is possible to file a joint return without having your spouse actually sign the return itself. This is done by having the spouse sign Treasury Department Form 936 which is an authorization to prepare, sign and file a joint income tax return.

A signed copy of this Form 936 is attached to the return instead of the spouse's signature.

If any tax has been paid separately, by withholding or on an estimate, full credit may be taken on the joint return.

Tennesee Valley Tract Vote Delayed

The Marin County Board of Supervisors held up action for two weeks yesterday on a proposed subdivision in Tennessee Valley, in spite of arguments by Planning Director B. D. Dobbs that lots were not too small and that grading of flat areas on steep lots might be justified.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he wanted more evidence.

"There is nothing wrong with grading, per se, to gain a flat building site," Dobbs said, arguing for a subdivision with 7,500-square foot lots.

"It is usually objected to because of the scars it leaves," he went on, "but people want some flat land on their lots, and they get it either by building decks or by grading."

The proposal, for Parlee Estates, to be developed by Clifford Parlee, was continued by the board to Feb. 25. Dobbs said the staff had recommended approval of the subdivision map because larger lots would have been economically unfeasible.

Dobbs added that the construction already in Tennessee Valley was either on small lots or apartments.

The Tamalpais Master Plan calls for 10,000-square-foot lot minimum size in Tennessee Valley.

Dobbs and Principal Planner David Van Pelt said the county slope policy would be applied in the area, so that lots on steeper terrain would be larger.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker asked for a development plan showing how the entire property owned by Parlee would be used. Van Pelt said only about a third of the land was in the subdivision.

Van Pelt said the county staff has not enough time to consider precise master plan development for every large parcel in relatively undeveloped areas of the county. He said the land could be zoned to require master plan development.

"The worst subdivision in this area will be a precedent for the next," said Behr.

HEARTBREAK INSTEAD OF GROUNDBREAK

Novato city and school officials stood around helplessly near a pile of dirt yesterday waiting for a bulldozer to start.

The occasion was groundbreaking for the $131,000 city swimming pool at Novato High School. The start of the project was not auspicious. Ground was never broken.

Mayor M. E. Babe Silva and City Parks and Recreation Director Edmund Mahany joined Supt. James G. Bunker and Ast. Supt. Eugene F. DeBrecht of the Novato Unified School District for the ceremony. The bulldozer, to be used for pictures of groundbreaking, was on the other side of the pile of dirt, under a tree.

Architect Richard S. Banwell, construction supervisor Charles Holcomb, inspector Arnold Grieve and contractor Laurence Fostmeier also showed up. A workman frantically tried to start the bulldozer. He tried and tried. It never started.

No Tamales Unionizing Vote Before July 21

Backers of unionization of elementary school districts within the Tomales Joint Union High School District learned the earliest possible date for an election on the proposal would be July 21.

Mrs. Lois Parks, clerk of the Tomales Bay Elementary District, reported school officials present generally agreed to try for that date.

All but Point Reyes School District were represented by trustees at the Tomales meeting. Seven districts are involved in the proposal.

Edwin L. Blackmore, director of elementary education in the Marin County Schools office, said if the move were approved in a July 21 vote, the unionized district would be established July 1, 1965. Blackmore also explained that a unified high school district would be established instead if a slight shift in boundaries were made prior to that date.

A unified Tomales High School District with one governing board for all schools, both elementary and high in the district, was twice turned down by the State Board of Education.

Unionizing the elementary districts is another way of achieve unification. It would not require approval of the state board.

A small portion of land now in Analy High School District in Sonoma County would have to be annexed to the Tomales High School District to make its boundaries contiguous with the boundaries of the proposed unionized elementary district.

Mrs. Parks reported there would probably be little difficulty in making the change since the land owners involved favor the shift.

Voters within each of the seven districts would have to approve the unionization in order for their districts to be included.

Mrs. Parks said there was no one present last night to oppose the move.

Hub Buys Four Drake Signals

The San Anselmo City Council concentrated last night on achieving traffic safety along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The council awarded Cimino Electric Co. of San Anselmo, lowest of four bidders, a contract to install four traffic signals at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Barber Avenue at a cost of $2,740.

Eight-year-old Regina Berreyesa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Berreyesa, 124 Prospect Avenue, was struck by a car and injured at that intersection last month. Councilmen last night rejected a $50,000 claim against the city for her injuries.

The council also is planning to hire a crossing guard for the intersection, six hours a day for five days a week. The crossing is now being manned by an off-duty police officer.

City Administrator Douglas Flautt suggested city crews could handle the job of transferring overhead traffic lights to ground level at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Red Hill Avenue at a saving to the city. The council authorized Flautt to study the feasibility of such a project.

The Roman Emperor Tiberius liked cucumbers so well that he had cucumber beds mounted on wheels so his slaves could move them about to catch the sunshine.

Novato Law Would Require Listing Of Real Property

The Novato City Council last night introduced an ordinance requiring council and commission members to list their real property.

A public hearing on the ordinance was set for Feb. 25.

Councilman Robert D. Carrow had proposed such an ordinance. Vote on introduction was 4 to 0, with Councilman Everett Pozzi absent.

Al Lerch, member of parks and recreation commission, told the council it might expect an "exodus" from its commissions because of the ordinance.

"I've heard repercussions against it, but I don't think there would be if commission members understood it," Lerch said.

The ordinance requires all council members and commission members to list all real property which they own or have an interest in, either as an individual, partner or in a corporation in which they own more than 3 per cent of the stock.

The council authorized hiring a temporary police clerk until June 30. It called for bids for two police cars with trade-ins and one police station wagon without trade-in.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Approved a request that Marin County handle the city swimming pool bonds as it is handling the other municipal bonds for the city.

2. Received a mid-year budget report from City Administrator J. Julien Baget, showing that of the city's estimated $548,720 income, $227,758 has been received. Of the $530,060 budgeted by the council, $237,148 has been spent.

3. Set Sunday as a tentative date to interview applicants for finance officer.

4. Rejected joining the Assn. of Bay Area governments by a split 2-to-2 vote, Carrow and Councilman Lucile Cannon favoring and Mayor M. E. Babe Silva and Councilman John J. Angeloni opposing. This item has come before the council many times, and has always been rejected.

5. Voted to abandon Prospect Road near De Long and Reichert avenues. John Novak, Inc. is the principal property owner who will benefit from closing of the road.

6. Granted Sunset International Petroleum Corp. a use permit for a temporary tract sales office on San Carlos Avenue.

7. Accepted the end portion of San Jose Boulevard in front of the San Jose Intermediate School.

8. Voted against asking the State Division of Highways to reserve any access rights to the Grant School property at Highway 101 and Grant Avenue. "If this is to become business property, then it should have access to the present highway," said Councilman Angeloni.

9. Introduced an ordinance amendment allowing all city employees to receive double time for working on weekends. Previously only the police and public works maintenance men received pay for weekend work.

Eighty observation stations around the world are currently measuring earth tides in a program begun during the International Geophysical Year, 1957-58. The stations use gravity meters and horizontal pendulums planted deep in rock.

Novato Moves To Acquire Cemetery For A Park Site

The Novato City Council last night took the first steps toward acquiring the old Novato Cemetery as a memorial park site.

The council set for April 7 a public hearing on city acquisition of the cemetery and asked the city staff and commissions to compile full information on the history of the cemetery.

The parks and recreation commission last week recommended that the city take over the cemetery. It withheld approval of getting adjacent land for a city park, pending a public hearing on it next week at the parks and recreation commission meeting.

The old cemetery has been the scene of much vandalism to the grave markers.

The Novato cemetery is owned by a corporation, 60 per cent of the stock of which is owned by Russell Gooch of Mill Valley, according to Novato City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. No one has been buried in the cemetery within recent years.

Ross Hospital Unit Offered For Mental Health

The Marin Mental Health Center in Ross General Hospital has been offered to the county to be included in the new county mental health program, to be supported by state funds under the Short-Doyle mental health law.

Dr. Aaron J. Ungersma, chairman of the board of trustees of the Marin Mental Health Foundation, which operates the center, wrote the Marin County Board of Supervisors saying the center facilities would meet state requirements for the program.

At the time the county mental health advisory board recommendations on the initial county program were made, use of the Ross facilities was included as a possibility, though a definite commitment was avoided.

The center, which opened Jan. 6, provides out-patient psychiatric care to Marin residents.

Tiburon Rec Holds Meeting At Reed

The newly-formed parks and recreation committee of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council met at Reed School last night.

TV Franchise Out For San Anselmo

San Anselmo city councilmen agreed last night they do not want to grant a television franchise in the Hub City.

They received franchise inquiries from two firms, Bill's Radio and TV of San Francisco and V. E. Sharar of Riverside, which offer master television antenna cable service.

Mayor Arthur W. Smith asked, "Have we had any requests from residents for this type of service?

"No," said City Administrator Douglas Flautt.

"When there is a need, it'll be time for us to consider it," the mayor said.

Last 'Heart Days' Chairman Named

The last of the town chairmen to be named for the annual "Heart Days for Business" drive was announced today by Thomas Lathrop, Marin chairman of the business drive.

He is Harry Lilly of Montgomery Ward and Co. in Corte Madera, who will direct the business canvass for that town, Friday through Feb. 21.

2 Youths And Girl, Carrying Knives, Jailed

Two young men and a girl, each carrying a knife with four-and-a-half inch blade, were jailed today in San Rafael.

San Rafael Police Sgt. Louis Foster said the two men are suspected of violating parole from a federal institution in Los Angeles.

The men identified themselves as Robert Harry Sims, 20, and Gerald Knight Baldwin, 19, both of Venice, Los Angeles County. The girl is Margaret Raisenger Sims, 20, of Las Vegas. She told police she is Sims' wife.

Sims said he escaped from a federal pre-release guidance center in Los Angeles where he was being held for transporting a stolen car over state lines. Baldwin said he, too, had been picked up for car theft but had been paroled last Dec. 17.

Acting on a tip, police rounded up the trio at the home of a relative at 1355 Clinton Court.

Sims and Baldwin were held in Marin County Jail for the United States marshal. Mrs. Sims was being held for Las Vegas authorities.

Marin City Pictorial History Plans Made

Several committees to make plans for the presentation of a pictoral history of 22-year-old Marin City at the June general meeting of the Marin County Historical Society were formed this week by the newly organized Marin City Historical Society.

Final plans for the general meeting will be made at the Marin City group's meeting at 7:30 p.m. March 16 in the Community Center Lounge, according to John Thomson, chairman protem.

Reed Split On Surveying Objectives

Trustees of the Reed School District last night tabled until July consideration of a survey on district educational objectives.

The committee pondering the proposed study was sharply divided on whether it should go on, the board learned.

Mervin Field of Belvedere read the committee majority report against the survey. He said the matter should be delayed at least past the June 2 election, when voters will act on a proposal to unify all districts within the Tamalpais Union High School District.

Field, under questioning by board member Richard J. MacLaury, who favored the study, added that state law changes involving limits of override taxes should be considered first.

The committee split was revealed by member Anne Ellenwood. "There were three for, three against and three undecided," she said.

The study should consider population mobility, commitment to elementary education, income, attitudes toward property taxes, changes in average age of adults and attitudes of parents toward elementary education, the committee said.

Sausalito To Put Lid On Shattering Schoonmaker Noise

Residents Appeal For Quiet; Diesel Vibrations Hit

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Sausalito city councilmen took a look last night at the teeth in the city's new zoning ordinance, and decided they are sharp enough to put the bite on A. G. Schoonmaker Co. for disturbing the weekend peace of Filbert Street.

A score of residents were on hand at a specially called council meeting to tell about the noise, vibrations and Diesel fumes produced by weekend testing of big mobile power plants which Schoonmaker manufactures at the foot of Spring Street.

They didn't have to tell Mayor Paul Micou and Councilman Jan Paul Dyk. Those two officials, in response to calls from the neighborhood, went out last Sunday to see (and hear) for themselves.

When they stood on Filbert Street two blocks from Schoonmaker's plant, they had to shout to each other to be heard above the noise, said Mayor Micou.

"We have regulations," he said. "I think they are sufficient."

The mayor mildly suggested at first that the complaints be discussed with Schoonmaker—who had been especially invited to the meeting but did not attend — "during this week to see if we can come to some understanding."

That was before a half dozen residents spoke their pieces about the noise and fumes. After hearing from them, Mayor Micou agreed with Councilman Michael Harris that "the answer is very simple: It's an infraction of the law and they should be cited."

Specifically, Mayor Micou noted, the ordinance provides that all uses permitted in industrial zones "shall be conducted in completely closed buildings." The Schoonmaker engines, said the protestants, are tested out of doors (although one resident said Schoonmaker once tested a particularly large power plant indoors after cutting a vent through the wall so that its exhaust directed fumes, noise and vibrations up the street).

There were complaints last year, Joseph W. Belehrad of 134 Filbert reminded the council, and at that time Schoonmaker promised to be "a good neighbor." But, said Belehrad, the engine testing — principally at night and on weekends, causes floors to shake and windows to vibrate. "We are being deprived of the use of our homes and yards by the vibrations," he declared.

"Sometimes you'd think it was an earthquake," said Fred Perry of 121 Filbert.

T. Denterlein, who owns an apartment house at 1733 Bridgeway, said the noise and vibrations were so bad that when he rented apartments to two policemen, they moved out because they could get no rest.

Those policemen, or others, will pay a call on Schoonmaker with warrants if the noise is repeated next weekend, councilmen declared.

Mayor Micou, a cautious man, said he and iCity Atty. Leland H. Jordan would attempt to set up an airtight case and instruct police what to do. He noted the ordinance provides for a maximum $500 fine for each violation.

Councilman Howard Sievers offered to borrow a noisemeter to measure the decibels emanating from the Schoonmaker premises.

Said Councilman Dyk succinctly, "This has to stop—or else!"

Birch Society Aide Will Speak At College Of Marin

The other side of the coin will be presented tomorrow when Hugh C. Fine, Northern California coordinator of the John Birch Society, speaks to College of Marin students at 12:30 p.m. in Olney Hall.

On Oct. 8, Albert J. Lima, Northern California District chairman of the Communist Party, spoke to students. His talk, as is Fine's, was sponsored by the Mariner Discussion Committee, a student organization.

Fine will outline the Communist conspiracy and explain the workings of the John Birch Society.

Fine, 41, worked in the painting contracting business until last March when he became the Northern California coordinator for the society. He is a Navy veteran, and a member of the Santa Clara County Republican Centeral Committee.

The U. S. one-dollar bill is supposed to have an average life of 13 months, and when retired is burned by the Federal Reserve Banks.

BROWN HITS SNAGS— ON SCHOOLS, WATER

Countywide Education Tax Is Opposed; More Tideland Oil Revenue To Be Asked

SACRAMENTO (AP)— Two of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's legislative lieutenants split with the administration today over financing schools and water.

The disagreement in Democratic ranks was another sign that the 1964 legislative session could be long and bitter.

The lawmakers are in recess until March 2.

Assembly Majority Leader Jerome R. Waldie (D-Antioch), announced his opposition to Brown's proposed countywide school tax, aimed at equalizing the economic difference between wealthy and poor districts.

Chairman Carley V. Porter, (D-Compton), of the Assembly Water Committee disagreed with Brown's decision to limit the amount of tidelands oil revenues set aside for water project construction to 11 million dollars.

Porter said he wants between 16 and 20 million dollars in tidelands revenues to be placed in the California Water Fund.

Brown's water financing proposal, similar to a provision of last year's budget, would free an additional 20 million dollars in tidelands money for educational spending.

Porter said he plans to introduce a bill calling for increased water spending when the legislature ends its recess. He predicted Brown may end up supporting it.

Waldie, who helped defeat the countywide tax in the 1963 legislature, said he still considers it a "statewide property tax." He said it also amounts to a property tax increase.

Barry, Rocky To Talk At Fresno GOP Meet

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will make a personal pitch for support by the California Republican Assembly in Fresno March 14.

It won't be a face-to-face debate between the two candidates for the Republican presidential nomination.

But the separate appearances will give delegates of the volunteer party organization a firsthand chance to look 'em over before deciding their choice.

The 14,000-member CRA is expected to endorse a presidential candidate as well as a contender for the U.S. Senate seat held by Democrat Clair Engle.

Rockefeller headquarters announced that the New York chief executive will address the opening CRA convention session on the morning of March 14.

Goldwater previously accepted an invitation to speak at a CRA banquet that night.

Bel Marin Keys Garbage Becomes Mess

Garbage is something most people want to get rid of, but in Bel Marin Keys, there are two parties wanting it.

The problem is that two companies have been given the contract to pick up the garbage in the area, according to Charles Joseph, engineer-manager of the Novato Sanitary District.

When the development started, a Bel Marin Keys Community Services District was formed. It contracted with the Five Brothers Garbage Service Co. of Santa Rosa for garbage disposal.

Later, the area joined the Novato Sanitary District, which contracts with the Novato Disposal Service to haul away all garbage in its jurisdiction.

The board of the Novato Sanitary District maintained Monday night that anyone else picking up garbage in the area was in violation of a district ordinance, but admitted that there was a question of overlapping jurisdiction, Joseph said.

James Morton, attorney for the Novato Sanitary District, and Leland H. Jordan, attorney for the Bel Marin Community Services District, were asked to solve the dilemma.

All Is Quiet For China Fete

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalist commander of Quemoy has ordered his troops to hold fire against the Chinese mainland for the next three days unless the Reds start something.

The order was designed to enable civilians and Red troops along the mainland coast to celebrate the Chinese lunar new year, which begins tomorrow.

The Coast Guard's famed square-rigged training ship "Eagle" started out as the German "Horst Wessel." It was launched in 1936 at Hamburg and transferred to the United States as a part of reparations after World War II.

Townhouses Approved After Attack By Leydecker As Barracks-Like

A use permit for townhouses in Lucas Valley was granted yesterday by the Marin County Board of Supervisors after Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker complained that the development would look like barracks, and then asked approval.

"In the future, I would not like to see this type of development for a similar area," Leydecker said about the 71-unit development proposed by Eichler Homes, Inc.

"The architect's pictures look great," he added, "but what happens is someone throws in a few oleanders there which nobody ever takes care of and you're left with a stark view?"

Principal Planner David Van Pelt answered that a homeowners' association would be formed to maintain landscaping. The project would be handled similar to a condominium, he said.

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said the density would be similar to an ordinary apartment project. Supervisor William D. Fusselman said residents in the area were warned about the high density when the area master plan was approved years ago.

"I can see parts of the county where these would be good," said Leydecker. "If you want to save some hillsides, all right, but this is simply denser single family housing."

The board set a hearing March 3 on proposed changes in the county building ordinances bringing the electrical code into compliance with new state laws.

County Building Inspector Hans J. Berge said he intends to start a series of meetings with city officials in an attempt to bring about adoption of a uniform building ordinance throughout the county. He added that the electrical code would probably need the most revision.

A request by the county employees' association for extra days off to compensate for the fact that three holidays this year fall on Saturday was almost approved in part by the board.

County Administrator Alan Bruce pointed out that it was too late to act on Washington's Birthday, because 30 days would be needed for an ordinance to go into effect.

Fusselman then asked that the county adopt a new ordinance allowing an extra holiday in such cases after June 30. This would cover Independence Day but not Memorial Day this year.

Bruce, however, said only one other county in the state, Stanislaus, gives extra holidays to compensate for Saturday holidays. He asked for time to study the proposal. On motion of Supervisor Peter H. Behr, the question was put over to Feb. 25.

The supervisors refused to make any major changes in the official chain of command in case of a disaster. Civil Defense Deputy Director Jean Smith had asked that a rotation order among supervisors be named before the authority would drop to the county administrator.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

1. Agreed to hold an auction to dispose of surplus county property, including laundry equipment at the County Farm.
2. Declared a wrecked sheriff's patrol car as surplus.
3. Authorized County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney to represent the county in the $200,000 damage suit filed by International Investment Co., as well as to defend redistricting before the State Supreme Court, if necessary.
4. Authorized formation of a county service area to maintain open areas within the Marinero subdivision, Tiburon.
5. Approved a tentative map for the first unit of Marin Highlands, development by Presidio Development Co. on the Pimentel Ranch.
6. Continued until next Tuesday a request for a use permit by Richard Handley to convert a duplex into a triplex in Lagunitas.
7. Accepted with praise the withdrawal by the Draper Companies of a request for a small billboard near Highway 101 announcing the planned opening of Roos/Atkins in the Northgate Shopping Center. The planning commission had unanimously denied the request.
8. Approved the master plan and development plan for the Alto Wye Apartments, agreeing to allow development of several four-unit buildings, rather than eight-unit buildings.
9. Approved the master plan for Kaplan Industrial Park near Ignacio.
10. Referred to a committee on governmental organization a proposal by the planning commission that cities be approached with plans to unify city and county planning staffs.
11. Continued until Tuesday a request for an increase in librarians in the main county library, asking for justification from County Librarian Virginia Keating of the request.
12. Appointed Frank E. Logan Jr. as assistant chief jailer and Robert P. Gowling social worker.
13. Promoted Raymond T. Nelson Jr. to accountant-auditor I in the auditor's office; Raymond P. Borton to assistant chief deputy, Kenneth L. Irving to inspector and Robert Bertrand to sergeant in the sheriff's office; and Virginia Riella to intermediate account clerk in the welfare department.

Nickels are bringing six cents each from a Salt Lake City firm engaged in melting down certain issues for their silver content. Some 870 million coins were issued by the U. S. Treasury between 1942 and 1945 in which silver was substituted for nickel ore. They are presently valued at seven cents each.

BOARD TACTICS HIT

Ex-Student Lauds Disputed High School Book List

San Rafael High School's controversial book list came up again last night in a lengthy letter from a former student who praised it as an "excellent supplementary" list and criticized the San Rafael Board of Education for its stand.

Stephen Marks, a 1961 graduate of San Rafael High School now enrolled at Stanford Law School after completing undergraduate work in two years, first praised the education he received in the district.

Then he said that on a recent weekend in San Rafael he saw "accounts of tactics by your board that reminded me of Nazi leaders and Communist strategists.

"I saw a copy of the most absurd collection of lies about one of the finest members of the community, which was sent to all but one of you."

Marks apparently referred to the publication "Tocsin" (he spelled it "Tosca"), alleged Communist influences in the book list controversy.

"In your fear of communism," Mark wrote, "you are violating rights few Communists would dare challenge; and the dangerous fact is that you are carrying a lot of very innocent and ignorant people with you."

Marks said he feared that the position of the school's most talented teachers might be in jeopardy.

Board members heard the letter without comment.

Fusselman Is KABL's 'Citizen' For Friday

Marin County Supervisr William D. Fusselman of San Anselmo has been chosen "Citizen of the Day" by Oakland radio station KABL.

He will be honored on Friday with a day-long series of announcements over the radio station.

Center Road Completion In March Predicted

Novato's Center Road project should be completed by the first week in March, B. J. Whitlow, acting city engineer, last night told the Novato City Council.

The council extended the contract time, which expired today, for an additional 20 working days. It also approved spending $3,500 for liming the base rock to stabilize the road. This will come out of the $9,000 contingency fund in the project.

O. C. Jones Construction Co. of Berkeley was given the contract for widening Center Road between Diablo and Tamalpais Avenues last Aug. 15. The work bogged down with the winter rains, and the street has been nearly impassable for several weeks.

"There is a slight difference of opinion between the city and contractor on whether he was told to stop work or not," Whitlow said.

Heavy Winds Hit Los Angeles Area

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Heavy winds battered Southern California early today, toppling trees and downing power lines.

Gusts up to 45 miles per hour were reported in Civic Center, where a plate glass window was knocked out.

Minutes Reveal Vote In Hiring Vice Principal

Wayne Donald Boone of Oakland was hired to be the vice principal of San Rafael High School next year by a 3-to-2 vote of the San Rafael Board of Education, published minutes.

Board Member Bella H. Aaron last night was irked at finding the vote in the minutes. She said it defeated the purpose of a closed meeting on a personnel matter and suggested the report of the vote in public minutes might be contrary to the law.

She urged that Supt. Bert C. Corona get a ruling from county counsel on the matter.

A recent amendment to the state education code requires that minutes be taken of all meetings, except closed meetings as permitted under the Ralph M. Brown Act. Closed meetings are permitted for discussion of hiring.

Boone is to take his new post July 1. The minutes presented to the board last night showed that Mrs. Aaron and Carl J. Brown voted against granting him a contract. C. Paul Bettini, John M. Bagshaw and Walter J. Doll voted in favor.

Kentfield Fire Group Elects

Frank Zita of 5 Kendle Lane, Kentfield, was elected chairman of the Kentfield Assn. of Volunteer Firemen last night, succeeding Guido Mariani.

Other officers are: Ronald Darrington, vice chairman; James Hausle, secretary-treasurer; William Morris, sergeant-at-arms, and Robert and Guido Mariani, Rolf Stahlbaum and Alfred M. Hausle, directors.

Elected to represent the association as a voting member at meetings of the Marin County Assn. of Fire Departments was Rod Biddleman. Alternates are Frank Berthinier Jr., Ed Schultz and Ken Holyome.

Terra Linda Valley Hospital To Get $4 More From Marin

Marin County will be charged $4 more a day for each patient in Terra Linda Valley Hospital, the county board of supervisors agreed yesterday, making the daily charge $25.

The action changing the contract between the county and the hospital was amended by a 4-1 vote of the supervisors, with Supervisor Peter H. Behr opposed.

Behr said he did not feel the new rate was unreasonable, but it had not been justified by the hospital.

Hospital treasurer Walter V. Coberly said the hospital would realize only a nominal profit under the new rates, but Behr said Coberly's statement was not enough.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the change would increase payments by the county for the rest of this fiscal year by about $20,000, but added that state and federal government would probably pick up about three-fourths of that cost.

"Our alternative is $44 a day at San Rafael General or $49 a day at Marin General Hospital," commented Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker.

"By that argument, they could justify charging $30 or $35 a day," answered Behr. "Is Terra Linda Hospital saying they have a gun at our heads and are going to shoot if we don't take the offer? If not, there is room for negotiation."

Behr asked for a survey of similar hospitals, but Bruce said only two or three hospitals in California offer similar services.

Under the contract, the rate change became effectively immediately.

Corte Maderan Hurt In Sausalito Crash

Mrs. Pauline Waters, 45, of 10 Diamond Head Passage, Corte Madera, was treated at Marin General Hospital for bruises on her chest, cuts and bruises on her left hand and a broken nose yesterday after she reportedly drove her car into a parked car on Caledonia Street near Bee Street in Sausalito.

Police said Mrs. Waters, who was not cited, ran into the car at 11:45 p.m. Monday.

Although the science of radioastronomy was discovered in 1931, it was largely ignored for 20 years until the British took an active interest in its development.

Traffic Access For Duplex To Be Studied

Traffic access patterns for a proposed seven-duplex development on Point San Pedro Road between the Porto Bello and Harbor Estates subdivisions will be studied by the developer and the San Rafael planning staff before a second hearing on the plan is held by the city planning commission on Feb. 25.

The first hearing on rezoning of the area from unclassified and residential-duplex to a planned community district was held last night, with no opposition raised.

Commissioners, however, expressed concern about traffic access and asked that it be studied before the second hearing.

A use permit and architectural approval were granted for an office building at 503 E Street near Ross Avenue, subject to the condition that cars would not be allowed to back out onto Ross Street. Mrs. Lorraine Curley is the applicant.

The San Rafael Planning Commission also:

1. Postponed consideration of plans for a four-unit apartment building on the west side of Park Street north of Belle Avenue for two weeks to allow Paul Lacoste, the applicant, to discuss his plans with the city's planning staff.
2. Approved architect's plans for a three-unit apartment on Elford Street near C Street, proposed by Mrs. Dallett Rueger.
3. Gave architectural approval of plans for the remaining 31 units of a 61-unit apartment development at 119 Nova Albion Way, planned by E. T. Komsthoeft. Approval of the first portion was granted last month.
4. Granted a use permit for expansion of the Loch Lomond architect Robert W. F. Severin, along with architectural approval of the plans for four new stores in the center.
5. Approved architect's plans for a warehouse on the south side of Mill Street between Hoag and Medway streets with the condition that the developer, B. Arata, work with the planning staff to improve the parking pattern.
6. Denied North Bay Associates, Inc.'s request for resubdivision of two lots on Elizabeth Way into four parcels.
7. Approved subdivision of two lots on Redwood Highway Frontage Road between the National Cash Register and Fairchild Semiconductor building, presented by D. M. Christensen, on condition that the plan complied with the city ordinance requiring separate plumbing facilities for each building.
8. Approved splitting a lot at 106 Prospect Drive, proposed by Mrs. Shirley Masterson.
9. Granted a use permit to George Steinert for storage of used vehicles on property between Francisco and Bellam boulevards for two years, provided adequate parking facilities were provided.
10. Gave architectural approval and use permit for a Marin Unitarian-Universalist church on the east side of Channing Way, near Marin Professional Center.
11. Approval the final map of Rafael Racquet Club Estates unit 4 on the extension of Wimbledon Way and River Oaks Road.
12. Gave preliminary architectural approval to a site plan for a 54-unit townhouse development on the northeast corner of Canal and Larkspur streets.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Al Dark Will Get The Spotlight Tomorrow At Press Conference

CONNOLLY

It happens every spring, just before the S.F. Giants open training. You could say it is held more for the sake of tradition than anything else.

I'm referring to the press conference tomorrow starring Al Dark, San Francisco Giant manager. You gotta have a good sense of humor, and have nothing else to do if you look forward, anxiously, with a "news" objective in mind. Not since he came here has anyone ever accused Alvin Dark of being a good "news source." He answers everything tersely, politely, willingly, but when he's through you don't know any more than you did before asking him.

THAT PARTICULAR twist in his makeup makes baseball reporters tab him uncolorful. It's too bad Dark can't be accepted as a "good copy" manager like so many other skippers in the National League. But he isn't, and that goes not only locally but nationally, and makes it unfortunate for Giant public relations.

But in spite of Dark's reticence, the newsmen and TV and radio spielers will all assemble tomorrow at Candlestick Park and try to pry loose some information on the prospects of the Giants in 1964.

SILLY QUESTIONS such as: "What do you think of Jimmy Davenport's chances of making good at second base? Will Jim Hart be gun-shy after being hit twice? How much good will Del Crandall do for the pitcher? Will Cookie Lavagetto have anything to say as a coach? And so on far into the afternoon.

The question and answer session at these so-called news conferences can become quite embarrassing. For instance, someone might ask how many years does a manager have to be boss before he can develop or improve players on his club. If one checks pretty closely and speaks the truth, he would have to admit that Orlando Cepeda, first baseman, isn't any better right now than he was when Dark succeeded Bill Rigney. Neither is Jimmy Davenport who is being shifted from third base to second base to make room for a minor leaguer who can hit, but is regarded a poor defensive third baseman.

DARK COULD answer that pitcher Juan Marichal and Willie McCovey improved under his reign as manager. And he could take a bow, possibly, on shortstop Jose Pagan and second sacker Chuck Hiller. But the overall improvement to the club, as a whole, isn't any great shucks. The young pitchers for whom owner Horace Stoneham has plunked out huge sums of money are not developing fast enough. That's why horse-trader Chub Feeney and his boss, Stoneham, must swap the likes of Ed Bailey and Felipe Alou to get veteran pitchers to bolster up a decaying crop of youngsters.

My chief criticism of Dark is his unwillingness or lack of confidence in youngsters like Bob Bolin and Jim Duffalo. Last year when Jack Sanford, Billy O'Dell and Billy Pierce were having off years, he strung along with the likes of Jack Fisher and Billy Hoeft, bypassing the bonus babies, who, when they did get a chance, came through admirably, but too late to have any effect on the teams' pennant chances.

I'M MINDFUL that a club with a chance to win the pennant can't take chances on untried pitchers. But when the life-saving crew of vets go sour, any manager has every reason to begin developing pitchers like Bolin and Duffalo, and not continue to waste time with slipping "never wases" like Fisher and Hoeft. Now that Bob Shaw and Bob Hendley are acquired it looks like the best Bolin and Duffalo can expect in '64 is make good again as relievers before getting the starting nod.

It's a good thing for Tom Haller that he had a few years of good coaching from catcher Wes Westrum before stepping into the role as first string catcher. Young Tom had one of the best tutors in the game and his work reflects the parental interest Westrum gave him. Now that Del Crandall is his sidekick, you can expect the Giants to have one of the finer young receivers in the league.

But all aboard for Candlestick Park—I'll see you tomorrow.

HOWIE YOUNG
Now In WHL

'Bad Boy' Howie Young Joins Blades

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Howie Young, a 26-year-old defenseman who has spent much of his career in the penalty box, is joining the Los Angeles Blades of the Western Hockey League.

He was acquired from the Chicago Black Hawks yesterday for an undisclosed cash sum and two players to be named later.

The Hawks asked waivers on Young earlier this month after he was suspended for using vile language and spitting at spectators while confined to the penalty box in Toronto.

Before the Hawks dealt him to Los Angeles, Young refused to join their farm teams at Buffalo and St. Louis and indicated he wouldn't play outside the National Hockey League. But Blade Coach Alf Pike said Young has assured him by telephone he'll report here Friday or Saturday.

The Hawks acquired Young from the Detroit Red Wings last summer. The Red Wings became disenchanted with him because he missed practices, sometimes games.

Last season Young led the NHL in penalty minutes with 273. That's more than 4½ hours.

Novato Upsets San Rafael 52-46

San Rafael High School's seven-game winning streak in the Marin Athletic League came to a screeching halt yesterday when the injury and foul riddled Bulldogs were upended by the streaking Novato Hornets, 52-46, at San Rafael's gymnasium.

The Bulldogs played most of the game without four first stringers as center John McKinnon suffered a knee injury early in the first quarter; Rod Monti, the league's leading scorer, twisted his ankle near the end of the first half; and Rich Ahern and Steve Spurling each accumulated four personal fouls in the first half and sat on the bench for virtually the entire second half. After their injuries McKinnon and Monti saw no further action.

Novato, registering its fifth straight league win for a second place 5-2 record compared to San Rafael's 7-1 mark, sewed up the victory with five foul points in the final 22 seconds of play — two each by Dick Willard and Barry Hachmyer and the other by Ron Rowell. Up until then it was a nip and tuck thriller.

Big men for the Hornets in the finest upset of the season were Willard with 21 points, including 11 from the foul line, Hachmyer with 16 points and center Fred Arnold who hauled down some 14 rebounds.

Novato outrebounded San Rafael 33 to 30, the first time the Bulldogs were beaten in that department this season.

Coach John Panagakis praised his Hornets for their upset, commenting, "I'm prejudiced, of course, but I think we'd have beaten them even if their (San Rafael's) good kids played the whole game."

Monti, who had averaged 23.5 points for the first seven league games, scored 16 in the first half before his injury yesterday. Wade Roberts, the only Bulldog first stringer to play the whole game, followed Monti with 13 points.

Included in San Rafael's seven previous league wins was a 74-41 rout of this same Novato team that turned the tables yesterday.

In the shooting department yesterday, Novato connected on 17 of 47 field goal attempts and 18 of 32 free throws compared to San Rafael's 16 for 47 and 14 for 21, respectively.

Novato	15	18	6	13	—52
San Rafael	17	13	9	7	—46

Novato scorers: Nick Willard, 5-11-21; Barry Hachmyer, 6-4-16; Fred Arnold, 3-1-7; Ken Beade, 2-0-4; Bob Phillips, 0-1-1; Ron Rowell, 1-1-3. Totals—17-18-52.

San Rafael scorers: Rod Monti, 4-8-16; Wade Roberts, 6-1-13; Mike Menne, 2-2-6; Rich Ahern, 2-0-4; Ken Erdman, 2-0-4; Pat Haven, 0-2-2; Steve Spurling, 0-1-1. Totals—16-14-46.

Tamalpais Cage Team Blasts Terra Linda

The suddenly high scoring Tamalpais Indians piled up a 67-43 victory over Terra Linda's Trojans yesterday afternoon at Tam to even their Marin Athletic League won-lost record at 4-4.

The 67 points brought to 211 the Indians' scoring total for the past three games, an average of 70-plus. Yesterday they had four men in double figures—Cedric Collett and Robin Prosch with 12 each and Ellis Williams and Chris Schuepbach with 10 each. Rich Olsen and Larry Gray contributed strongly, with eight apiece.

Coach Eddie Chavez credits a smooth-functioning fast break and strong rebounding for the Indians' higher scoring of late. Yesterday the defending league champs from Mill Valley cranked off a whopping 79 floor shots to Terra Linda's 49. Tam, led by Olsen under the board, outrebounded the losers 59-26, according to the Tam charts.

For a while it looked as if the league single game scoring record of 82 points, set by Tam last Friday, would be shattered by both clubs as it was 1919 at the end of the first quarter with Prosch of Tam and Bill Brody of Terra Linda each scoring 9 in that session. But the teams cooled off from that torrid pace, with Tam building a 35-30 halftime lead and steadily developing it into a convincing victory, though far shy of a record. Brody tallied 19, giving him 111 points in eight league games.

The game originally was scheduled for yesterday afternoon, then rescheduled for last night, then finally rescheduled again for yesterday afternoon to accommodate Terra Linda commitments.

Terra Linda	19	11	5	8	—43
Tamalpais	19	16	15	17	—67

Terra Linda scorers: Kraig Kilby, 1-0-2; Bill Lee, 4-2-10; Bob Cooney, 1-0-2; Bob Lemmelet, 1-0-2; Bill Brody, 6-7-19; Dick Clark, 1-1-3; Don Knotts, 2-1-5. Totals—6-11-13.

Tam scorers: Ellis Williams, 4-2-10; Cedric Collett, 6-0-12; Chris Schuepbach, 4-2-10; Mike Beaver, 1-0-2; Tami Bell, 0-1-1; Rich Olsen, 3-2-8; Robin Prosch, 44-12; Dan O'Brien, 1-2-4; Larry Gray, 3-2-8. Totals—26-15-67.

San Rafael 'B' Cagers Get Revenge

Turnabout is fair play.

Yesterday afternoon the Novato Hornets broke San Rafael's undefeated record in the Marin Athletic League varsity basketball race, 52-46, so last night the San Rafael Class B team evened things to some extent by handing Novato its first loss in the Class B competition, 50-47.

Bill Pandiani led the second place Bullpups with 15 points, but game honors went to Novato's Ken Phillips with 20. Novato still leads the championship race with a 6-1 record, but San Rafael is only one-half game behind at 6-2.

In other Class B games yesterday Terra Linda downed Tamalpais, 49-42 as George Shields scored 13 points for the winners and Floyd Barrow 12 for the losers; and Marin Catholic edged Drake 40-38 on Jim Tupper's 20-foot jump shot from the corner in the last second. Paul Schwab led Marin with 13 points.

Mrs. Dickover Wins Tourney

Mrs. J. W. Dickover won Class A of the medal play sweepstakes tourney at the Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club yesterday.

Winners were:

Class A—Mrs. J. W. Dickover, 96-30—66; Mrs. Theodore Broedlow, 99-28—71; Mrs. Harrison Lavender, 101-26—75.

Class B—Mrs. Merton Jacobs, 105-36—69; Mrs. Les Rowland, 108-36—72; Mrs. P. A. Archer, 110-36—74.

Bob Shaw Signs With S. F. Giants

Bob Shaw, a veteran pitcher and a key figure in San Francisco Giant pennant hopes, yesterday became the 35th player to sign his 1964 contract.

Shaw, 30, was obtained in a mammoth winter deal with the Milwaukee Braves that saw Felipe Alou, Ed Bailey and Billy Hoeft sent to Milaukee in exchange for Shaw, Bob Hendley, and Del Crandall.

Shaw was 7-11 with the Braves last season and also posted 16 saves and a fine earned run average of 2.66. His best season in the majors as with the Chicago White Sox in 1959 when he chalked up an 18-6 record.

Giants manager Alvin Dark said he would count heavily on Shaw to be his long-relief man.

Marin Catholic '5' Bops Drake 87-45

Marin Catholic Wildcats couldn't seem to miss the basket last night as they romped to an 87-45 victory over the hapless Drake Pirates in Marin Athletic League basketball action at the Drake gym.

The 87-point output eclipses by five points the league's single game season high set only last Friday by Tamalpais Indians and is believed to be an all-time league record, though no official records are kept by the league.

Some phenomenal shooting carried the Wildcats to the astronomical (for high school) total as they scored on 34 of their 53 field goal attempts—a sizzling 54 per cent—and added 19 foul shots.

Team leader Dick Ghilotti was the game's shining star for he scored 14 points and on defense held Drake hot shot Lorry Galassi to six points. Ghilotti also was the most accurate shooter, clicking on 6 of 9 floor shots.

Mike Ferrua with 16 points, Bruce Makinson with 15, Ghilotti with 14 and Phil Ferris with 13 gave Marin scoring balance.

In their earlier meeting last month Marin almost blew a 17-point lead, finally shading Drake 54-53, but last night the Wildcats jumped off to a 24-12 first quarter lead and steadily increased the margin.

Drake's leading scorer was Larry Stein with 12.

Marin Catholic	24	22	18	23	—87
Drake	12	11	8	14	—45

Marin scorers: Tom Soden, 2-3-7; Phil Ferris, 5-3-13; Mike Ferrua, 8-0-16; Bruce Makinson, 7-1-15; Bob Redding, 2-3-7; Dick Ghilotti, 6-2-14; Bill Thiercof, 0-3-3; Bill Shine, 2-4-8; Dave Morrell, 1-0-2; Brad McDonald, 1-0-2. Totals—34-19-87.

Drake Scorers: Rick Henika, 1-1-3; Bob Brackett, 1-3-5; Bert Lando, 1-0-2; Larry Stein, 5-2-12; Rod Keener, 2-1-5; Lorry Galassi, 2-2-6; Bob DeMartini, 1-0-2; Dennis Hanigan, 1-2-4; Joe Decker, 1-0-2. Totals—17-11-45.

WHL CRUCIAL

Seals Host Bucks Tonight

If the San Francisco Seals hope to climb back into contention for the Western Hockey League playoffs, they had better start tonight and Friday when they host Portland in the Cow Palace.

The Seals have won eight straight in the Cow Palace, but are fresh from a road trip during which they dropped seven straight.

The visiting Buckaroos are in fourth place, one point in front of San Francisco with fast-improving Vancouver three points back of the Seals.

So far this campaign, San Francisco and Portland are 5-5-1 against each other in their well-balanced series.

Seals owner Coley Hall will be in the audience tonight to see what ails the Seals, who have had a three-day rest to get ready for Portland. The match will be televised on KTVU (Channel 2) starting at 8:30 p.m.

Denver is so far ahead in the Western Hockey League that it is out of the question, but the other five teams are so bunched with 16 games left in the regular season, that any kind of Seal finish from second to sixth is possible.

Hockey is one sport where coaches and players speak frankly. Coach Bud Poile says that the collapse of the defending WHL champ this year was because "Nick Mickoski and Mo Mantha are not hitting the net like they did a year ago."

Warriors Win, Still Lead By Two Games

DETROIT (AP) — The race to the wire is on and three teams, led by the San Francisco Warriors, are pushing for the Western Division title, 21 games away.

The pressure is being applied by the splinted thumb of Jerry West, who recently returned to action for Los Angeles, and last night scored 40 points in leading the Lakers to a 113-109 victory over defending NBA champion Boston.

The Warriors, meanwhile were having trouble with the NBA doormat, Detroit. San Francisco overcame a 14-point deficit in the final 8½ minutes of regulation play, tied the score 114-114, and won in overtimet, 128-118.

Wilt Chamberlain scored 59 points, matching his season high and keeping the Warriors two games ahead of St. Louis and three games in front of Los Angeles.

The strongest teams in the NBA are Boston, Cincinnati, Los Angeles and St. Louis and the Warriors meet these teams in nine of their next 10 games.

Duck Pin Oddity Defies All Odds

TAUNTON, Mass. (AP) — An oddity in team scoring occurred recently in the Roseland Junior Duck Pin Bowling League. Five bowlers rolled exactly the same score in the third game as in the second game.

The duplicate scores were 86, 58, 73, 94 and 72 for a 383 total in each game.

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP) — Jack Adams, the leading scorer in Eastern Kentucky history, is now an assistant basketball coach at his alma mater. Adams scored 1,460 points during three seasons of play.

Miler Jim Beatty To Make '64 Debut In San Francisco

TO MAKE DEBUT—America's fastest miler, Jim Beatty, will run in the Golden Gate Invitational Indoor track meet's mile run Saturday night at the Cow Palace. He holds the world indoor mile mark at 3:58.6. (AP Wirephoto)

Will Compete In Golden Gate Track Meet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jim Beatty, the veteran American distance star whose times are more impressive than his victories, makes his Olympic year debut Saturday in the Golden Gate Invitational indoor track and field meet.

It's the start of a year which Beatty hopes can atone for his 1960 Olympic failure and his disappointing 1963 season.

The dark-haired, 5-foot-6 runner holds three U.S. citizens' outdoor distance records, is still listed as the world record holder at two miles, owns history's best indoor two-mile and the indoor mile topper of 3:58.6.

NO FINALS

Yet in the 1960 Olympic 5,000 meters, he ran nearly a minute slower than his American record and didn't even make the finals. In the past three National AAU mile championships, Beatty won only in 1962—the year Dyrol Burleson didn't compete.

And last May in his heralded duel with Peter Snell of New Zealand, Beatty never made his move and finished a beaten fourth.

Beatty is a talkative, likeable man who ran with fair success for the University of North Carolina, retired for a time and then began running again under the spartan regimen of former Hungarian coach Mihaly Igloi.

RETURNS

Beatty followed Igloi from Northern to Southern California but now has returned to North Carolina—without Igloi.

A strong but not really outstanding field will oppose him in the Golden Gate's mile. It includes NCAA champion Morgan Groth of Oregon State, indoor mile champ Ben Tucker of San Jose State and sub-four minute miler Bill Dotson, formerly of Kansas.

The meet also will feature outstanding fields in the 440, 880, two-mile, pole vault and high jump.

Tucson Open Starts Tomorrow

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — The touring professionals lined up today for another crack at the golf and glory, this time without the menacing forms of Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer in the ranks.

The $30,000 Tucson Open Golf Tournament gets under way tomorrow and the favorite is Gary Player of South Africa, on of Golf's glamor boys.

Tony Lma, winner of the $50,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Am, had been regarded as Player's top rival but had to cancel plans to compete because of illness.

Player, making his first United States start of 1964 in the Phoenix Open last week, was tied for the lead with only 16 holes left to play, but lost out when Nicklaus put on a tremendous surge to capture top money.

Competition will be over the 49er Golf Club course, where Don January ran away from the field last year. January is back to defend his crown and is at the top of his game.

The quiet man from Texas tied in the Lucky International in San Francisco three weeks ago with Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez, the little Pureto Rican. Chi Chi won the play off and will be sure to try and take this title from January, too.

Player is surprised that he is playing as well as he did in Phoenix.

"I just had hoped to make the cut," he said. "Then when I found out I had a chance to win it, I was really surprised. My game isn't in tip-top shape yet. I'm hooking everything a bit. But I'm putting better than I ever have in my life."

Among the other big names who will compete here are former PGA king Bob Rosburg, Palm Springs winner Tommy Jacobs, French Open champion Bruce Devlin of Australia, and British Open champion Bob Charles of New Zealand.

Ross Sailor Moves To 10th In Acapulco Race

ACAPULCO, Mex. (AP) — Strong winds have increased Carousel's chances of winning the 1,430-mile San Diego-to-Acapulco yacht race.

Ashley G. Bown's 40-foot cutter from the San Diego Yacht Club has maintained the lead in over-all standings since last Saturday and was 197 miles from the finish line this morning.

Amorita, sailed and owned by Henry Grandin of Ross, moved from third place to second yesterday in Class B and was 10th over-all about 200 miles from the finish line.

After a night of weak winds ranging from 3 to 5 knots, the winds picked up from 10 to 20 knots yesterday.

Three of the larger boats already have completed the course. Howard Ahmanson's 83-foot sloop from the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, Sirius II, finished Monday in the record time of 8 days, 9 hours, 15 minutes and 54.2 seconds. The old record was set by the 83-foot sloop, Windward, in 1958 when she sailed the distance in 8 days, 12 hours, 34 minutes and 43 seconds.

Sails puffed by wind, John B. Kilroy's 73-foot sloop, Kialea II, and Robert F. Johnson's 72-foot ketch Ticonderoga swept across the finish line yesterday.

Arnold S. Haskell's 67-foot yawl, Chubasco, was only 71 miles from Acapulco at roll call yesterday and was expected to be the next boat to finish.

Harold A. Thomas' Calypso, languishing in last place 441 miles from Acapulco, dropped out of the race yesterday.

Over-all standings and miles from the finish:

1. Carousel, 197.
2. Misty, 242.
3. Caper, 229.

Class C — Carousel, Misty, Caper, Spirit, Hataero.

School Board Talks On T.L. Block Letters

Members of the San Rafael Board of Education last night heard of the different philosophies governing the awards of block letters at Terra Linda and San Rafael high schools, but they took no action to change the systems.

An athlete at San Rafael High School can earn a letter by playing so much time on a team, while an athlete at Terra Linda gets points for playing on a team. The most a Terra Linda player can get for one sport each year is 15 points. Thirty five are needed for a letter.

Terra Linda Coach William O'Bayley explained that this system encourages athletes to go out for more than one sport.

Board member Walter J. Doll said he thought something should be done to bring the systems closer together, but Board Member Bella H. Aaron argued that there was no reason why the two schools should not be governed by different philosophies.

San Rafael Boxer To Fight In Golden Gloves Tomorrow

Randy Petrini, former star athlete at College of Marin, will see action tomorrow night in the Golden Gloves boxing tournament which started last night in San Francisco.

Petrini, weighing 216 pounds, will be boxing in the novice heavyweight class in the 33rd annual Examiner Golden Gloves tourney.

Petrini, of San Rafael, will be matched with Orville Stephenson of Modesto in the 13th bout on a 34-bout card. The first fight of the evening will start at 8 o'clock.

Box office at the Kezar Pavilion, where the bouts are being held, opens at 6:30 p.m. General admission is $1 and reserved seats start at $2.

In the two feature matches last night, John Lujam, of Fresno, outpointed Tommy Sullivan of Ft. Ord in the 132-pound class. And in the 139-pound class Eddie Mullins of San Francisco won a decision over Harold Armstrong of San Francisco. Mullins' father is a former golden gloves champ.

In the heavyweight class, Rebey Harris of San Francisco outpointed Billy O'Neal of Modesto in a three-round brawl in which both men slugged it out without a single clinch.

In other fights, Larry Houseman of Eureka won by decision over Benny Garza of San Jose in the 139 pound class; Anthony Villasenor of San Francisco knocked out Gerald Bacon of Eureka in the first round in the 132 pound class; and Lupe Lopez of Sacramento scored a technical knockout over Tony Risling of Eureka in the first round of their 156 pound match.

YOU...YOUR CAR...AND THE

ANTI-SMOG LAW

The State's Vehicle Anti-Smog Law went into effect on January 1, 1964. Its provisions and penalties affect owners of about 6 million vehicles. For example, in 1964, any car built before the '61 model year must be equipped with an approved anti-smog device before it can be retitled. Also in '64, all commercial vehicles* must be so equipped. And in '65 all cars* built before the '61 model year must have an anti-smog device. (Owners of '61 models or later have no worries. Their cars were equipped at the factory to comply with the new law.)

*Except those few exempted by the State.

Walker Smog Ban—approved by the California Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board—gives you an effective, trouble-free way to comply with the Anti-Smog Law.

Smog Ban is a patented device with no moving parts to wear out, no valves to clog, clean, or replace. It provides 100% control of crankcase fumes that cause smog. Installation is fast and easy, does not require drilling of hole in manifold, with possible damage to engine from metal chips and other contaminants. Cost is moderate . . . and Smog Ban requires just one simple servicing operation: press an easy-to-reach plunger at regular intervals!

SMOG BAN IS FULLY GUARANTEED* to be the most effective anti-smog system for your car.

1. Smog Ban is fully guaranteed not to be harmful to your car's engine. No valves to clog. No drilling of manifold necessary. Drilling of manifold can cause dangerous chips to lodge in engine causing scoring of pistons or cylinder walls.
2. Smog Ban is guaranteed to be maintenance free. No valves to replace. Just push the special patented plunger and Smog Ban is fully efficient.
3. Smog Ban is guaranteed to keep your car free from crankcase fumes which could result from a plugged crankcase ventilator valve.

*Guarantee not transferable and applies only to the original purchaser for as long as he owns the car on which the Smog Ban unit is installed.

SEE YOUR SERVICE STATION or car dealer now. Ask your serviceman to install a Walker Smog Ban system for you soon. That way, you comply with the law, and you have the satisfaction of contributing to California's anti-smog crusade . . . you don't gain a thing by putting off installation until the law forces you to!

Child Reading Not Affected By Television

STANFORD (UPI)—Television has little influence on the amount of reading a child does, but a child's reading habits definitely effect television's impact on his mind.

This is a major conclusion of Dr. Eleanor Maccoby of Stanford University in her new book, "The Science of Human Communication."

Dr. Maccoby, a child psychologist and associate professor of psychology, concedes that television "does constitute an important source of influence on children and as such is a legitimate object of public concern and public action."

"But," she said, "television is not the only, and not even the major, influence on children's attitudes and values."

The child's parents, his teachers and his own independent reading are among the major influences that shape his young mind. The stronger these factors are, the weaker television's impact will be.

"It is in the area of the unfamiliar that television will influence beliefs and attitudes and establish stereotypes," Dr. Maccoby maintains.

She also found that a child's viewing habits has little effect on the amount of reading a child will do. In fact, the presentation of a classic story or play on television will often stimulate a child to seek out a copy of the original in the library.

Despite Spiders Big As Plates, Marinite Enjoys Primitive Life

By DOROTHY NEWELL

Three days of camping in the Sierra of California was the only preparation in the primitive living for Mrs. Roger Martin Keesing, who has just recently returned to Novato to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Neil Craig.

Mrs. Keesing accompanied her husband, an anthropologist, to the island of Malaita, one of the Solomon Islands, where she was his assistant. They lived for one and one-half years with the Kwaio Tribe to study them. Mr. Keesing has a research grant with the United States Department of Public Health and will return to the United States in December.

"A great many people tried to discourage me from taking the trip," Zina Keesing said. "When we arrived at Guadalcanal, the police also tried to discourage me, as they said a white woman would never be able to take the climate," she said.

"I WAS determined to go and I loved all of the experiences."

The jungle life certainly has not harmed Mrs. Keesing, who could easily be mistaken for a college student. However, the one thing that nearly made her turn back was the first day on the island, when she saw a spider which she described as big as a dinner plate.

"I WAS panic stricken, but was told they were harmless, so eventually I got used to all the insects," she said. She was collecting spiders for the Peabody Institute by the time she left the islands.

THE KEESINGS lived on the "weather coast" which has an estimated rainfall of 265 to 300 inches of rain per year. Their home, a thatch type, was on the cliffs 1,300 feet above the ocean.

Because of the continual rains, the ground was always a sea of mud.

"I believe I missed walking more than anything else," Mrs. Keesing said. "There was no place to go, and the mud would be up to one's knees," she added.

WHAT DID she miss in in foods? Sour dough French bread, hearts of lettuce and broiled chicken. . .

Another problem was the mold that formed on everything. Along with the continual rains, the temperature varied from 67 to 80 degrees, she said.

Their thatched home had a veranda, bedroom and kitchen. As Mrs. Keesing talked about their life, she made it sound so easy, however, she washed her clothes in the stream with soap and a brush, cooked on a kerosene stove and had no electric lights.

"ON THE night we arrived at our home, we used our new pressure appliances for the first time. We had 800 unclothed natives trying to see what we were doing," Mrs. Keesing said.

Another thing that fascinated the natives was ice cubes, which the Keesings made in a kerosene icebox. Speaking in pidgin English, they would ask for the ice saving "Me burn all same as fire" thinking the ice was hot.

Windows were not covered because of the climate and there were no mosquitoes. However, Mrs. Kessing found that other unwelcome "guests" come in during the night, including hundreds of moths attracted by the lights. One night, while her husband was out in the jungle, she was alone and awoke with something crawling in her hair. It was a six inch centipede. The Keesings placed a mosquito netting around the bed following that episode.

THE SOLOMON Islands are administered by the British and while the Keesings were there, a British officer was killed by the Kwaio tribe. The British retaliated and killed 300 of the tribesmen, Mrs. Keesing said.

Fearing the Keesings might be frightened by all this, the Kwaios appointed bodyguards to protect them night and day.

"It really became a nuisance," Zina said, "as they wouldn't let us out of their sight for quite some time after the killing."

THE MELANESIANS that inhabit the islands are not an Oriental people, Zina said. She described them as slightly shorter than Americans and some of them are blond. However, she had never seen a blue eyed Melanesian.

The Kwaios do not have

Organ Lessons

Learning to play the organ with a group of beginners adds enjoyment, the American Music Conference says.

Group lessons are popular because each person is stimulated by the efforts of others as they experience the same problems and accomplishments. To meet the demand for lessons, studios specializing in organ instruction are springing up nationwide.

Teen-Age Surfing Craze Takes Lead In Sportswear Fashions

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When surfing was confined to a few hardy Southern California pioneers, the usual uniform was oversized swim trunks and a warm, hooded sweat shirt.

That's changed since surfing became a teen-age rage, male fashion experts said Monday.

Teen-age men, as the American Institute of Men's and boy's wear calls them, now buy laced-front swim trunks that won't fall off when the wearer is toppled by a wave.

Surfing has become so popular that even land-locked mid-western teen-agers are buying surfing clothes, said the experts

Older young men also are wearing what teen-age surfers wear — or the manufacturers say they do—on dates and on campus.

For non-surfing surfers, they showed swim trunks that only look like they lace up the front. Some come equipped with hip pockets for carrying surfboard wax—or loose change if you live in Des Moines.

For durability, the industry has surfing trunks in bullet-proof nylon, the same fabric used in bullet-proof vests. They also make them in nylon sail-cloth, cotton sailcloth, madras and lastex.

The old sweat shirt was discarded in favor of ski parkas for winter and summer parkas lined with terry cloth or made of nylon and denim.

For non-swimmers, there's a water-proofed nylon parka, called a "float coat," which its designer says will keep the swimmer afloat like a Mae West life preserver.

You can wear them with a collarless sweat shirt approved by the United States Surfing Assn. and bearing its emblem—bare feet.

'Natives Are Not Savages' Says Dweller On Solomons

much in the way of culture. The families have only one ceremonial pot which they use for roasting on an open fire, and one basket to gather the various native fruits. Their two crops are taro and sweet potatoes, which they "shift cultivate," moving the crops each year to another plot of ground. This in all takes 17 years to completely move the crops from one plot to another. They also love to smoke a pipe, Zina said—both children and adults. They raise their own tobacco.

MRS. KESSING, who has great admiration for the Kwaios, said the natives are called savages by those who do not know better.

"THESE PEOPLE are very proud and dignified and a woman is respected, she said. The children are treated very well and grow into fine individuals, she said.

"After we had been on the island nearly 10 months, a botanist stopped by on a trip to Australia. Because my husband and I were to have a two month holiday off the island, we decided I should go with the botanist at that time and my husband would follow one week later. But the natives would not hear of it. They thought I was running off with another man, so I was in disgrace for a time after that. I did not leave the island until my husband went with me," Mrs. Keesing said.

SHE DESCRIBED the music of the tribe as beautiful. She brought back tapes of their music. Their musical instruments are made of bamboo pipe and they blow over the top of them.

MRS. KEESING was graduated from San Rafael High School, attended Stanford University one year and received her degree in philosophy at Boston University. She has been offered a one year Woodrow Wilson fellowship but she has not decided whether she will accept as she isn't sure she wants to "return to student life."

Even though she had to buy groceries a year in advance, never had fresh meats and vegetables, baked her own bread and received mail only once in six weeks, Mrs. Keesing is eager to return to the Solomons.

"My husband and I hope to go back in two years," she says.

Braising Tips

Braising, one of the so-called "moist heat" methods of meat cookery, is the recommended manner of cooking many of the less tender and thrifty cuts of amount of liquid, cover the utensil tightly and cook the meat very slowly until tender.

Sprinkle Fruit

A few drops of lemon juice sprinkled on freshly cut fruit keeps the fruit from turning dark. The juice is a mild bleaching agent—it's also effective in keeping white vegetables white.

HONORED IN GERMANY— A 1c Macklin N. Burnham, son of Mrs. R. M. Christy of 35 Gertrude Lane, Novato, has been selected "Airman of the Quarter" for the 89th Tactical Missile Squadron at Hahn Air Base in West Germany. He is a missile equipment mechanic.

Hearing Set On Cost Of Haircuts

A state hearing which could affect the size of the "bite" for haircuts will be held in San Rafael March 18.

On that date at the Labor Temple at 701 Mission Avenue, the California State Board of Barber Examiners will examine the minimum set by the state for a "sanitary haircut." This figure, currently at $1.05, includes supplies and other costs to the barber shop—but not wages.

Cost of a haircut in Marin is to rise from $2.25 to $2.35 July 1 under terms of a union contract. Manuel Martin, secretary-treasurer of Barbers Local 582, said the state board hearing will not affect the price to the customers — but observers speculated that if the state hikes the price for a "sanitary haircut" the owners would eventually have to pass it on to the public.

Two File For Novato Board

Robert E. Campbell of 1301 Olive Avenue and Kenneth L. Roche of 34 Washington Street, Novato, Monday filed for the one position open on the Novato fire district board, reported Fire Chief George Cavallero.

Ralph C. Briggs of 1177 Midway Court, Novato, has also taken out nomination papers but not returned them, Cavallero said.

Incumbent Robert J. Busher of 1757 Indian Valley Road, Novato, said he will not run for re-election.

Filings close at noon tomorrow, with the election April 7.

Drunken Driver Gets Fine, Jail

Donel Eugene Heckman, 34, of 37A Valley Road, Alto, paid a $250 fine and was sentenced to five days in jail Monday for driving while intoxicated last Aug. 21 on East Blithedale Avenue in Mill Valley.

He admitted a prior conviction for drunken driving. Heckman appeared in Marin Municipal Court before Judge Leonard A. Thomas, who also ordered him on probation for one year.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

If You're Not An Endomorph, You Must Be Mesomorph Or Ectomorph

VAN DELLEN

Differences in body build have been recognized since antiquity. The figure may change with the passing years but in general it is determined by heredity. Hormones also play a role in that all men and women have a combination of masculine and feminine characteristics.

We recognize three basic components of body build, even though there is no pure type. The endomorph is the first; fatness and roundness are outstanding. The second is the mesomorph in which masculinity predominates. The third type, the ectomorph, is characterized by slenderness and linearity.

DR. W. H. SHELDON, after studying the photographs of several thousand persons, introduced this somatotype grouping years ago as a convenient way of rating humans along this line. The three characteristics are graded from one to seven, in the order given. The well balanced man or woman ends up with a score of 3-4-3. The fat lady at the circus rates high in endomorphy and less so in the other factors, giving her a score of 7-1-1.

The endomorph, with his soft, round physique, enjoys food and company, relaxes easily, and sleeps soundly. He is greedy for affection and wants to live and let live. In addition, his obesity encourages ailments associated with overweight, including gall bladder disease.

The mesomorph, or athletic type, is full of energy loves exercise, snores vigorously, and rises early in the morning full of pep. He wants things done in a hurry, which is hard on his heart and blood vessels, which may give way under the strain of vigorous living.

THE ECTOMORPH is fragile and narrow. Ectomorphs are shy, intense, nervous, and highly sensitive and vulnerable to outside influences. These persons are alert, love privacy, and shrink from social contacts. They are apprehensive and tire easily because of using up so much nervous energy. The ectomorphs do not sleep well and have trouble getting up in the morning. They often suffer from skin disorders, head colds, and ulcer. Many are hypochondriacs.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

BLISTER-LIKE LESIONS

REPLY

It is listed as a skin disease. The word, pemphigus, means a blister or bubble. Blisters arise on the skin in various areas such as the scalp, armpits, elbows, knees, hands, feet, nose, and eyelids. There are many forms of the disease and some terminate fatally. Cortisone or other corticosteroid is the treatment of choice.

THE JOHNSON STYLE

President Always On Job —Even While 'Relaxing'

(Second of a series)

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — As a boy, Lyndon B. Johnson was often awakened at 4:30 a.m. by having one bare foot twisted by his father's impatient hands.

"Git up, Lyndon!" the father's words were as sharp as the sudden twinge of the ankle. "Every other boy in town already has a half-hour's head start on you!"

The key fact about Johnson's work pattern is that he seldom stops working—even when he's socializing. Work and relaxation go hand in hand.

On an average morning, Johnson is awake by 6:30 a.m. A lifetime of habit makes it difficult for him to sleep later. By 6:45, the president's aide and official shadow, Jack Valenti, is at the White House, prepared to go over the day's schedule and give Johnson a briefing on secret intelligence from around the globe.

After the intelligence briefing, the first order of business is a look at the day's schedule. How should the president handle each visitor or visiting delegation? What does he want to tell them? What does he want to learn from them? Johnson and Valenti, shuffling through folders of neatly filed memos on each appointment, decide the day's strategy.

"Then comes the "reading hour," which may stretch to nearly two hours. There are special studies, intelligence reports, diplomatic cables and memoranda form various agencies.

Like the late President John F. Kennedy, Johnson is a fast reader. His assistants say he has "a blotting paper memory" for key facts.

Newspapers are a major part of the president's morning reading. He thumbs through seven or eight of them, including the Washington Post, Baltimore Sun, New York Times, New York Herald Tribune, New York daily News, Chicago Tribune and Philadelphia Inquirer. The list is limited only by the number available at dawn.

The president skims the paper, looking in particular for prime news or for dispatches, columns and editorials concerning his own activities.

Like many a president, Johnson attaches great importance to the things that reporters and pundits write about him. If an article strikes him as favorable — "objective," he would say—Johnson is delighted. He has been known to venture into the White House lobby, where newsmen congregate, to bestow personal congratulations on a startled reporter. If the printed word is displeasing, the writer may get a personal phone call from the president, who does not hesitate to suggest amendments.

His reading completed, Johnson is ready for breakfast: a half melon and a cup of tea. The menu seldom varies.

Sometimes Johnson remains in the White House living quarters for an hour or two after breakfast, seeing top officials or calling them on the telephone.

Johnson lives with the telephone, using it to quiz department heads, cajole members of Congress, or surprise casual acquaintances.

On a usual morning, Johnson is in his oval office about 9:30 a.m., ready for appointments.

With many presidents, the appointments schedule has been semisacred. Visitors have moved in and out according to the timetable.

For Johnson, a schedule is something to exercise the imagination. Some appointments will be delayed, postponed or canceled. Others will be added.

While one man waits 30 minutes to see Johnson another may find a 10-minute appointment stretching into an hour. If Johnson wants to make a point, or engage in a thorough discussion of a topic he judges important, he will take whatever time is necessary.

There is another point, too about the president's many meetings: he tends to observe the chain of command, dealing with top people in a department or agency.

Both Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara see more of Johnson than they did of Kennedy. Several contacts a day are not uncommon.

Outside the official family, Johnson maintains an impressive array of contacts: with businessmen, labor leaders, civil rights partisans, local political leaders and the press. Many come for lunch and, to their surprise, are invited to stay for a dip in the White House pool.

Johnson is an ardent wooer of all groups that influence public opinion. He sees them, phones them, dines them.

All this consultation takes time, and Johnson may leave his office any time between 7 p.m. and midnight — occasionally later. After dining with his family, or with guests, he may go to his bedroom about 10 or 10:30 p.m. to do some more reading. Or he may summon a medical corpsman from the White House staff to give him a rubdown.

Fire Guts Dorm At Girls' College

COLUMBIA, S. C. (UPI) — A wind-whipped fire gutted a dormitory and two other buildings at Methodist-supported Columbia College early today forcing hundreds of pajama-clad girls out of their rooms into sub-freezing weather.

College President Wright Spears said the rooms of 350 students at the girls' college were destroyed. But he said no one was injured and all the girls were accounted for. Damage was estimated at one million dollars.

The pre-dawn blaze gutted east dormitory, which housed more than half the college's students; main building, which was the college's old administration facility and still housed its business offices, and a building housing the music department and auditorium.

To Arts Commission

SACRAMENTO (AP) — James L. Lyons, founder and general manager of the Monterey Jazz Festival, has been named to the California Arts Commission by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. The appointment requires Senate confirmation.

'Trip To Mexico' Exhibit Is Moved

The "Trip to Mexico" exhibit of Mill Valley artist Elsie Pomeroy's paintings has been moved from the Crocker-Citizens National Bank in Tiburon to the Mill Valley branch at 525 Miller Avenue.

Twelve water colors and one oil that Mrs. Pomeroy painted last summer in Mexico will remain at the Mill Valley branch of the bank until the middle of March.

VALENTINE COOKIE KISSES

Ocean Perch Perfect Lenten Dish

The ocean perch has finally come into its rightful place as a fine food fish. It has a thick layer of fine-textured white meat and is sweet, not oily, with a distinctive flavor. Native to the Atlantic Ocean, ocean perch used to be known as rosefish or redfish. It wasn't until about 15 years ago, when the good eating qualities of this fish became widely appreciated, that the fishing industry agreed on the market name of ocean perch. In season all year, both fresh and frozen, ocean perch fillets are especially plentiful right now, according to the National Fisheries Institute. Why not put this economical January buy on your shopping list?

CLAM-STUFFED OCEAN PERCH FILLETS

- 1 lb ocean perch fillets, fresh or frozen
- 2 (5-oz.) cans minced clams
- ½ cup butter or margarine
- ¼ cup chopped onion
- ¼ cup chopped celery
- 4 cups soft bread crumbs
- 2 tbsp lemon juice
- Salt and pepper

If fish is frozen, let thaw on refrigerator shelf or at room temperature. Arrange half of fillets, close together, in buttered baking dish. Drain minced clams, reserving liquid. Melt butter or margarine in skillet. Pour off about half of butter and save. To butter in skillet add onion and celery and cook until tender. Stir in bread crumbs until butter is soaked up. Continue tossing crumbs until they brown slightly. Stir in clams, lemon juice and enough liquid to moisten. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Spoon stuffing over fillets. Cover with remaining fillets. Brush with reserved butter. Bake at 375 degrees (moderate oven) 20 minutes, or until fish flakes easily when tested with fork. Serve in baking dish. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Valentine Kisses Romantic Recipe

Valentine Cookie Kiss combines the magic of maple with coconut to make everyday St. Valentine's Day for your special someone. From Vermont comes this romantic recipe for:

COCONUT-MAPLE COOKIE KISSES

- ½ cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1½ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon soda
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup Oat Cereal
- 1 cup milk
- ½ cup flaked coconut
- ½ cup nut meats if desired
- 1 teaspoon maple flavoring or vanilla

Cream shortening and sugar; add egg slightly beaten. Sift flour, soda, baking powder and salt together. Add to oat cereal and then combine with creamed mixture, alternating with milk. Add flavoring and fold in coconut and nut meats. Drop by teaspoon on buttered cookie sheet. Bake 10 to 12 minutes at 400°. Remove from cookie sheet to waxed paper to cool. Makes about 30 two inch cookies. Top with pecan halves or other favorites.

Meat Loaves Make Good Miniatures

There's nothing better than a good meat loaf, and no restaurant can equal the kind made at home.

To make a good thing better, try these miniature meat loaves that give each member of the family an individual loaf with lots of the crusty brown outside.

In addition to their miniature size, these meat loaves have other particular points of interest. First, there's the tasty, zippy topping containing catsup and a garnish of sliced onion. Then, there's the catsup mixed into the loaf along with onions, bread crumbs, and liquid smoke for a new flavor touch.

For an oven meal, serve the miniature loaves with baked Idaho potatoes, a creamed cauliflower casserole, and a salad of tossed greens. Add a dessert of fresh or glass-packed fruit and your family will be sure to ask for a repeat performance.

MINIATURE MEAT LOAVES WITH ZIPPY SAUCE

- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1⅓ cups catsup
- ¼ cup finely chopped onion
- 2 eggs
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- ½ teaspoon liquid smoke
- 10 drops Tabasco sauce
- 18 thin small onion slices

Combine beef, bread crumbs, ⅔ cup catsup, chopped onion, eggs, salt, pepper ¼ teaspoon liquid smoke and 5 drops Tabasco sauce; mix well. Shape into 6 small individual loaves. Place in shallow baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 35-40 minutes. Combine remaining ⅔ cup catsup, ¼ teaspoon liquid smoke and 5 drops Tabasco sauce; heat. Drizzle sauce over loaves and top with thin onion slices. Serve with additional sauce. Yield: 6 loaves, 6 servings.

Meat Grading On Voluntary Basis

The grading of meat is voluntary, some packers use the federal grading for meat, some use their own company terms of quality, and some (usually small local companies) do not grade meat.

Meat inspection is compulsory and the carcass must show either a state or federal inspection stamp. Each retail cut of meat will not show this, but the large cuts the butcher receives have to bear the inspection stamps.

Remove Centers

Honey Of A Bread For Valentine

The marvelous combination of canned crushed pineapple and California honey appear in both the filling and glaze of this melt-in-your-mouth Valentine bread. The heart shaped quick bread is tender and flaky—the filling scrumptious, and the frosting sprinkled with sliced almonds gives the final touch of glamor. In fact it's so delicious you may choose to serve it for dessert. Since it should be served warm, it will have plenty of time to bake during the main course.

Canned pineapple and California honey pair up happily in many quick breads. They're superb together in a pineapple honey quick bread loaf. Waffles and pancakes topped with pineapple tidbits and honey are a tasty treat for a weekend breakfast. Hot pineapple muffins served with honey are another idea to plan in your menus soon.

PINEAPPLE HONEY VALENTINE BREAD

- 1 (8½-ounce) can crushed pineapple
- ½ cup California honey
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1½ cups sifted powdered sugar
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- ¼ cup shortening
- ⅔ cup milk
- Sliced almonds

Combine undrained crushed pineapple, honey, cornstarch and butter. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until mixture becomes thickened and clear. Remove from heat. Measure out 3 tablespoons filling and blend with powdered sugar to make glaze. Mixture will be thick. Set filling and glaze aside.

Resift flour with baking powder, salt and sugar. Add shortening and cut in until in fine pieces. Add milk, mixing to stiff dough. Roll on floured surface to 9 x 18-inch rectangle. Spread with pineapple filling, then roll up like jelly roll starting from long side; pinch lengthwise seam and ends together to seal. Carefully move onto well greased baking sheet; shape into a heart. Make cuts about ⅔ way through dough with scissors at 1 inch intervals; turn each section on its side.

Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) to rich golden brown, about 20 minutes. Remove from oven, let stand a few minutes then spread top with pineapple glaze. Sprinkle with almonds. Carefully slide or lift with wide spatulas onto serving tray. Serve warm. Makes 8 servings.

Dillon Beach Water Rate Hearing March 9

A hearing on a request for a water rate increase in Dillon Beach and vicinity will be held by the California Public Utilities Commission at 10:30 a.m., March 9 in the dining hall of the Pacific Marine Station at Dillon Beach.

Request for the increase came from Lawrence R. Vanoni, doing business as Coast Springs Water Co., whose application for a raise in February, 1962, was denied by the PUC after customers complained the water had an offensive odor and was cloudy with sediment.

Before the PUC denied that increase, it directed Vanoni to hire consulting engineers to investigate the cause and source of "poor quality water." Vanoni said that in 1963 his firm spent $9,320 to provide better water treatment and $16,000 for new plant facilities.

The company needs an increase in rates to realize a net profit of 7.4 per cent in 1964, its application said.

Present rates, established November, 1959, are $36 per year plus 40 cents per 100 cubic feet of water used up to 5,000 cubic feet and 30 cents per 100 cubic feet beyond 5,000.

Vanoni asks these be raised to $59 a year plus 65 cents per 100 cubic feet up to 5,000 cubic feet and 50 cents per 100 cubic feet beyond 5,000.

California has twice as many national parks as any other state.

150 Due Honors At Catholic High

More than 150 students at Marin Catholic High School will receive recognition at the school's first honors assembly at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the school gymnasium.

Students who have maintained a "B" average during the fall semester and those who have qualified for membership in the California Scholarship Federation will be honored, as well as those who have received special awards during the year.

Rev. Edward Dullea, principal, will welcome guests and students attending the assembly.

Msgr. John Foudy, archdiocesan superintendent of schools, and Edward Credell, assistant county superintendent of schools, will be present.

The San Joaquin Valley produces more raisins than all the rest of the world combined.

Supervisors Approve Radio For Stinson's Ambulance

The Marin County Board of supervisors yesterday approved purchase of a radio for the Stinson Beach ambulance, operated by a volunteer ambulance corps.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr tried, unsuccessfully, to have the radio purchase conditioned on agreement that the ambulance service be extended to include Bolinas and Muir Beach. Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows said the extension of service had been requested by Capt. T. F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol.

W. E. Shuit, speaking for the ambulance corps, said the group had only five members and actually could not adequately handle its own area, which consists of the Stinson Beach Fire District plus the Bolinas School when classes are in session.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the county would pay for ambulance service where patients are unable to pay, but Shuit said there is no charge made anyway.

Main Speaker Set For Farm Bureau

Duane J. Louis, vice president of the Western Division of the Borden Co., will be main speaker at the annual dinner of the Marin County Farm Bureau, Feb. 22 at the Tomahawk Lodge, Novato, according to Eugene Brown, president.

The business meeting will start at 10 a.m., Brown said. The speaker will give his address after the noon lunch. New officers will be elected at the meeting.

Child Center, Teachers Ask Money

Teachers and a child care center went to the Sausalito School District board Monday night for more money.

Neither got it, but both may.

The Marin City Child Care Center asked the board to levy a two and one-half cent override tax to help operate the center. Trustees put the matter over to Feb. 17, when they will also hold preliminary hearing on the 1964-65 budget.

Noah Adair, chairman of the teachers salary committee, asked that the salary schedule, now $5,000 to $8,750 per year, be raised to a range of $5,000 to $9,960.

The three trustees present said they approved this in principle but would not act without a full board. Trustees Juanita Cobb and Stanley J. Wolfe were absent.

The Sausalito school board also:

1. Authorized a "rainy day" schedule at Manzanita School permitting pupils to cut their one hour lunch period to 30 minutes, thus getting out of school one-half hour earlier. The reason is "mud" and there not being enough paved area around the school.

2. Accepted resignation of Mrs. Muriel Kneib, Richardson Bay sixth grade teacher, effective June 30.

Tomales High Pay Raise Approved

Trustees of Tomales High School District Monday night approved a pay raise of approximately 5.5 per cent for teachers.

The new schedule raises the minimum starting pay from $5,088 to $5,400, and the maximum salary from $8,808 to $9,288 per year, said Supt. Anthony Matulich.

Canvass by the county superintendent of schools of the Jan. 14 bond election showed that proposition one for $175,000 in bonds passed by 785 Yes and 294 No with 19 blank in the 1079 votes cast, according to Matulich. When that proposition carried, the other two on the ballot for a tax increase or abandonment of the buildings were not canvassed.

The board accepted the annual report of Dalton, Graupner and Barber of San Rafael.

The board authorized hiring a substitute for the remainder of the term for Thomas McDowell, commercial teacher, who suffered a heart attack last week and is confined to San Rafael General Hospital.

A school calendar for next school year of 179 days starting on Sept. 14 and ending on June 18, 1965, was adopted.

5 Novato Flood Unit Aides Named

Five men were appointed to the advisory board of the Novato Flood Control Zone 1 by county supervisors on recommendation of Chairman William A. Gnoss.

Advisory board members are William K. Mayo, Robert M. Warner, E. D. King, Harry Clausing and Frank Galli.

The county counsel's office said no term is set for advisory board members since they serve at the pleasure of the supervisors who are directors of the county flood control zones.

Kentfield Teachers Ask Raises

The Kentfield School District board Monday night received a salary increase schedule from the Kentfield teachers salary committee which requests about a 10 per cent total pay hike.

Automatic pay increases under the existing pay schedule would amount to $18,000. Under the new schedule, the pay increases would cost $42,000, said Supt. Howard C. Harmon.

"Unless new legislation is passed by the state legislature, there does not appear to be enough money to finance the new schedule," he said.

The board decided to study the proposal made by Robert Cadwallader, chairman of the salary committee, before taking action.

The Kentfield School District board also:

1. Held for study a proposal that the Kentfield Teachers Assn. be recognized as the teacher's agency for negotiations.
2. Heard Harmon report that ity Mgr. Ronald E. Piper of Larkspur indicated the best solution for the safety problem of children crossing the street from the Adaline E. Kent School would be to straighten out Magnolia Avenue where it joins College Avenue.
3. Decided to continue its policy of releasing children one hour early for religious instruction.
4. Gave permission to district employers to circulate petitions in favor of more state aid to school districts to alleviate the tax load on the local property owner.
5. Appointed architect Jan Smeckens of 40 Corte Dorado, Greenbrae, to serve on the Tamalpais District Citizens Architectural Advisory Committee.
6. Accepted resignations of Madlain Yunkers, teacher at Kent School, and Mrs. Rosalie Kelly, secretary-receptionist at the same school.

FELIX E. DESIMONE
Ending county service

Auditor's Songwriter Retiring

Felix E. Desimone, 70, actor, songwriter and accountant, will retire at the end of February after 10 years service for the office of the Marin County auditor-controller.

A native of San Jose, Desimone took his Marin County job after having worked for the Marine Office of America. He has been in charge of accounting procedures for school districts and special districts, many of which use the county for depositing funds, paying bills, and buying supplies.

The senior account clerk has also worked for the Marin Housing Authority, Moore Machinery Co., Marinship Corp., and Gobeen-Travis Corp.

He lives with his sister, Angela, and son, John, 20, at 1912 West Grand Avenue, San Rafael, but said yesterday he plans to sell his home and move in with another son, Robert, in Novato.

He also has a daughter, Mrs. Carol Beyer of Sacramento, and four grandchildren.

Desimone has been active many years in the Ross Valley Players, and is now in charge of the state construction crew. Shortly after World War I he worked in several theaters as theatrical treasurer, and later worked for a song publishing firm, which started him writing songs.

He has never has a song published, however, but said he has hopes for one he is now working on, to be called "In San Rafael."

A long vacation is in the immediate future, Desimone said, but plans are indefinite thereafter, except for continued (perhaps increased) work with the Ross Valley Players.

Plastic House Seen As Next Building Step

NEW YORK (AP)—A day when plastic buildings will be poured, sprayed or prefabricated at the construction site was foreseen yesterday by a leading industrial architect.

Frank L. Whitney, president of Walter Kidde Constructors, Inc., urged plastic makers to hasten such a time by breaking away from steel-oriented thinking in the building field.

In a talk prepared for an American Management Assn. meeting, Whitney said that closer ties between chemists, plastics interests and builders would speed up exploitation of the material's flexibility, fluidity, transparency and its light weight.

He mentioned possibilities with a plastic-impregnated cloth that could be inflated into a variety of structural shapes with air pressure, then sprayed with plastics to provide a weathering surface and insulation.

The architect said many problems remain to be solved, including those arising from plastics' poor fire ratings and involving capabilities to withstand weather and light influences.

Richardson Bay Sanitation Aide

Max H. Graefe of Corte Madera will start work as operator of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District treatment plant and its six pumping stations Feb. 24, replacing Robert Ogden, Samuel A. Fletcher, district secretary, said today.

Graefe, who lives at 244 Sausalito Street, will be paid $650 per month.

He was formerly building maintenance man at the Woman's Athletic Club, San Francisco, and for nine years maintenance man for Corte Madera Sanitary District. A dispute last May led to the firing of Corte Madera Sanitary District Secty.-Mgr. William A. Adam followed several weeks later by Graefe's discharge.

Bolinas Utility Election May 5

May 5 is the date for election of three directors of the Bolinas Beach Public Utility District.

April 7 was announced previously as election date, but this was in error, said Dorothy M. Paul, secretary.

Persons wishing to apply for the board must file at the utility district office by April 3. Those whose terms expire in May are Robert Baird, John S. Lancaster and Mrs. Alice P. Cassidy.

TWO MARIN EMPLOYEES FIND MONEY, TURN IT IN

Two employees of the Marin County Public Works Department were commended for "extreme honesty" yesterday for turning in found money.

Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell presented a letter praising the men, Robert E. Savage and George B. Lemos, to the county board of supervisors.

While cleaning the basement of the old County Farm building last Wednesday, the two men found an envelope containing $66 in the bottom drawer of an old wooden cabinet, and turned it in to the county.

The money, personal funds of a county patient who died six years ago, was deposited in the county's general fund.

County Aid For Marin City Program Studied

A proposal for a combined program of educational, recreational, cultural and group social work in Marin City—with the County putting up part of the cost—will receive further consideration at the March 4 meeting of the Marin County Parks and Recreation District—is deserving of interest and study.

Briefly stated, a need of such services is cited, but the $1 tax rate per $100 assessed valuation is insufficient for the Marin City Community Services District to finance such a program. Slow redevelopment following removal of older buildings has further cut the tax base.

Proponents of the plan cited experience along similar lines in eastern cities, reporting sharp decrease in juvenile delinquency. They foresee such a program reducing costs in the welfare, probation and sheriff's department in the area—enough to save the county most of the $19,700 estimated cost of the first year's operation. Whether the county aid would come from the general fund or the parks and recreation budget is one of the matters at issue.

The program, as outlined by Robert Soain of the county superintendent of schools office would include pre-school care and training, after school help with home study, prevention of high school dropouts, leadership development, an athletic program and an arts program of art instruction, drama and concerts, with counseling with youths in trouble and with parents.

County aid for districts and projects unable to provide needed facilities within their specific tax rate limits is no new idea. But in such cases, feasibility and dire need must be shown, reflecting on the entire county's wellbeing.

There is much to be ironed out before a specific plan can be submitted to the county, partly due to past Marin City residents' resistance toward previous programs. But at least, another approach is being considered to meeting a situation that must be solved.

Just Can't Seem To Get The Hang Of It!

Presidential Candidates' TV Debate Plan Still Up In Air

WASHINGTON — There is no present assurance that the TV debates, which did so much to heighten interest in the 1960 campaign, will be continued this year.

It will be regrettable if they are not resumed.

There are two uncertainties. The necessary legislation has not yet cleared Congress. President Lyndon B. Johnson has not yet disclosed whether he will be willing to debate his Republican opponent.

President John F. Kennedy was committed. President Johnson isn't. At one of his first press conferences after the election, Kennedy gave an unqualified yes to the question of whether he would renew the face-to-face appearances with whomever the Republicans nominated. He agreed and there were no conditions.

Johnson is, of course, in no way bound by JFK's decision. There is no reason why he should hurry his answer. But he would, I believe, be doing a great disservice to the cause of bringing the campaign closer to millions of voters if he stands out against the debates.

THE LEGISLATION to allow the networks to give equal time to the two principal nominees without providing similar time to the splinter-party candidates, has already passed both Houses. But it has been tied up in conference by the House commerce committee chairman, Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.). He has been coyly holding it on the theory that it would be nice for him to protect President Johnson from having to say no to his opponent if he does not want to debate.

This is a bland misreading of his responsibility. The duty of Congress is to decide whether to allow the networks to make the time available for the debates — time which the parties could not afford if they had to pay for it. Then it becomes the responsibility of the nominees to decide whether either will deny the debates to the voters who show every evidence of wanting them.

I DOUBT that anyone needs to protect President Johnson. He is quite capable of protecting himself and could handle the security aspects of the debates with no difficulty.

There is an understandable reluctance on the part of any incumbent office-holder (governor, senator, or president) to give his potentially larger audience to his opponent. But this is a narrow view.

The debates belong primarily to the voters, not to the candidates. I am convinced that for the president to deny the debates to the public would be a far greater political liability than giving his lesser-known opponent part of his audience.

THERE IS no doubt that the Kennedy-Nixon debates greatly enlivened and deepened interest in the 1960 election. There was a sense of intimate individual involvement in the campaign which never existed before. More than 100 million people saw the face-to-face appearances.

Opinion polls showed that after the debates began there was a 12 per cent increase of interest in the campaign, whereas four years earlier, without the debates, interest increased only 1 per cent. Result: 4 per cent more voters—more than 3 million—voted than in 1956.

Obviously the debates do not have to have the same format. It can be improved. There ought to be more debate in depth between the candidates. Two of the debates ought to deal with no more than one or, at most, two main issues. They ought not to be glorified press conferences.

The reporters ought not to select the topics. The candidates should do that. As one who participated in one of the panels of the Kennedy-Nixon debates, I would say that the debates would be better without the correspondents.

But let's not lost this valuable instrument for strengthening this process of choosing our president.

LEAVES LARGE SUM TO HIS CITY

An elderly man left his entire estate of $200,000 to the city of Norwalk, Conn.

In his will, the 82-year-old benefactor wrote: "Norwalk has been good to me; I want the city to have everything." In this case "everything" consisted of $40,000 in real estate and $160,000 in personal property, cash and investments.

For many years the appreciative old man lodged in furnished rooms. It was only the year before his death that he bought a house for himself.

While you may be neither disposed nor able to provide more than your own small share of support for government, remember that it is your government just as much as it is anyone's.

Show a patient, conscientious and constructive interest in sound politics, in voting in every election and in giving your moral support to upright, efficient candidates and officeholders. These are some of the many ways in which everyone can contribute to good government.

"Unless the Lord guard the city, in vain does the guard keep vigil." (Psalm 126:1)

Thanks for the great blessing of liberty, O Lord. May I always be worthy of it.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Pay Not Adequate For Marin Teachers

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your newspaper has been most ethical in allowing a full airing of letters to the editor relating to your Jan. 20, editorial on the subject of teaching salaries. I note, however, no letter has yet been published from a superintendent and since, your editorial in large part concerned the role of this position in salary negotiations, I think comments from at least one superintendent should be published.

Please forgive my exceeding somewhat your announced limit in the number of words, but I took my cue from the length of letters already published.

. . . My main goal is to help build the best school system possible for our community. By far the most effective way to do this is to attract and hold superior and dedicated teachers and administrators. My most important task, therefore, is to hire superior people, make sure they know their responsibilities, and then provide sufficient latitude for them to practice the skills of their craft. Most of my time is spent trying to do just that.

How does one go about doing this important and crucial task?

1. Academic Training: Superior teachers and administrators are well trained in both subject matter and pedagogy. In these days of specialization, this usually means a minimum of five years of training. Buying this kind of thorough training costs more money;

2. Experience: Superior educators usually have at least some successful teaching experience. More experience also costs more money;

3. Comprehensive Recruitment: Superior educators are not easy to find. A wise community will invest substantial funds to allow a wide selection of candidates from the nation's top universities;

4. Honesty: When interviewing, I tell candidates the weather in Marin is delightful and the views breathtaking, but that the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics regularly reports the San Francisco Bay Area as one of the top three cost-of-living areas in the nation (the latest report was published in San Francisco papers January 29,1964); that most teachers like to teach here if they can afford to stay; and that the real income of teachers is not adequate by any accurately reported comparative standard (please refer to latest NEA, CTA and U. S. Office of Education Reports);

5. Salaries: Superior educators command and deserve superior real incomes just like their Marin neighbors whose incomes average among the highest in the nation. Current educational salary levels in Marin are by no standard good enough for the many fine teachers we now have, let alone for attracting and holding superior teachers in the future. Superior educators, especially married teachers, can not and/or will not afford the financial sacrifice necessary to teach here. My experience in trying to hire superior teachers on a national basis for some 10 years leads me to believe that Marinites are not fully aware of this liability. We lead each other to believe that superior educators will come here and stay merely because of the beauty of Marin or its proximity to San Francisco. In the long haul, this is not the case and thus, one important reason for striving to improve the comparative living standards of teachers with other Marinites having similar training, skills and experience.

6. Salary Study Procedures: It is agreed that definite and equitable salary study procedures are needed in each school district to insure fair representation of both the profession and taxpayers. The Superintendent must insure that both groups are treated fairly. This is difficult to evaluate. For example, concerning the procedures under which I now operate, it is quite likely that some Board members may feel that the system is weighted in favor of teachers while the teachers may well argue that the procedures favor the Board of Trustees and taxpayers. My experience in serving union and unified districts both overseas and in several states of the Union, leads me to conclude that the "balance" we all are seeking unfortunately is usually tipped in favor of the taxpayer because their representatives, the Board of Trustees, and rightfully so, make the final decision. The fact that salaries in the profession of education lag behind other professional and many non-professional groups tends to verify this statement;

7. Balancing Need and Ability: This too, is difficult because the taxpayer, Board of Trustees, and professional representatives always want more than the community-at-large is willing to support. The solution to this yearly impass is inevitably compromise and establishing priorities on the part of all groups concerned. Communities and staffs are never fully satisfied. Both groups have to give and take, with the Superintendent usually getting blamed for all of the pains and none of the gains.

Superintendents, however, are always open to suggestions and criticism. I am confident Marin County is no exception. If your newspaper can substantiate that the real income of educators in Marin County is even average for like socio-economic areas across the nation or if your newspaper can demonstrate that education in Marin does not need more of the kind of superior teachers to which I have alluded, then I will agree that the present system may be out of "balance." Until such time, may I humbly suggest a balancing of our total community's sense of what is right and of the priorities we place on what is most important for ourselves and for the children we together continually seek to serve better.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Billboard Legislation Up Again— New Angles, Possible Solution

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The hotly debated question of billboards along the public highways again will be before the State Legislature at the special session called by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The federal government has about five million dollars available to California if the state has a law regulating billboards.

The theory, however, of passing laws merely to receive federal money, in abeyance of principle, is hardly a sound premise for California legislation, no matter if the sum does reach the several million mark.

But if the legislature can pass a law which is acceptable to private property owners, and to companies which make a living for hundreds of people through this method of advertising, it could be that the aesthetic appearance of California highways could be improved.

ASSEMBLYMAN Edwin L. Z'Berg (D-Sacramento) has a bill before the House which provides no outdoor advertising would be permitted within 800 feet of a highway.

The Z'Berg measure tramples the rights of property owners along the highways and freeways, who would be told by the state they could not use their property for advertising purposes. Whether this proposal is constitutional or not is a moot question, but it is clear that it is a violation of private property rights.

Scheduled to be introduced is another bill, by Sen. Randolph Collier (D-Yreka), which will deal with the same subject, but which is expected to provide for recompense both to the billboard companies and to property owners who would be deprived of a source of income under the Z'Berg proposal.

THIS APPROACH to the problem may result in a solution to the question which could be acceptable to everyone.

Before any bill can get out of the legislature, however, there must be an agreement between leaders in the field both in the Senate and the Assembly.

Z'Berg says frankly that any bill unacceptable to Senator Collier could not get past the Senate transportation committee, which is headed by Senator Collier.

"And conversely," he stated, "no bill unacceptable to me is going to get out of my committee." Z'Berg heads the Assembly committee dealing with the billboard situation.

THUS, a compromise is necessary before any legislation can be accomplished, and the highways of California improved as to beauty.

Some bills relating to the subject in the past have been highly unacceptable. In fact, at one time it was suggested the state should approve the copy on all billboards, a suggestion which amounts to out and out censorship.

But after arguing the subject for a good many years, it appears likely that this is the time for all the disagreements to be ironed out and a measure submitted which will be acceptable to everyone concerned. Both Senator Collier and Assemblyman Z'Berg are willing to discuss the matter, and this usually is a good sign.

SENATOR John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) on Governor Brown's 3.66-billion-dollar budget being balanced: "If his budget is balanced, I'll make a personal contribution to his campaign for vice president."

SENATOR Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro tem of Senate, on 1964 session: "The size of the budget and length of the proclamation with the numerous items in it for a special session will, in my humble estimation, require the session to run well into May of this year."

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Laxity On Oswald's Passport Is Probed

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — In June, 1963, five months before he assassinated President John F. Kennedy, Lee Harvey Oswald obtained a passport to go to Russia.

This passport, for himself only, was issued in New Orleans the day after he applied for it. That was done without the customary "name check" required for persons known to be Communists or to have Communist associations.

At the time Oswald was granted the passport to travel to Russia, there was a detailed file on him in the State Department recording the following:

That Oswald had formally declared his "defection" to the Soviet in the U.S. embassy in Moscow; that he had married a Russian whose father is a colonel in the Soviet intelligence service; that Oswald had been arrested in New Orleans for distributing virulent pro-Castro literature; that he had mysterious ties with a certain government agency.

AS IN THE matter of the required "name check," this incriminatory State Department file apparently was completely ignored in giving Oswald a passport to Russia the day after he asked for it.

This sensational discovery by the special presidential investigating commission has focused attention on Abba Schwartz, controversial head of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs. In this capacity, he has jurisdiction over the Passport Division.

SCHWARTZ is definitely slated to be interrogated by the special commission.

As a result of Mrs. Marina Oswald's testimony and information from other sources, the assassination probers want the State Department official to clarify a number of matters, among them the following:

—Whether Oswald's passport application was referred to Schwartz for decision; if not, why not; and if it was, why the passport was authorized in view of Oswald's "defection" record.

—What was done about Oswald's State Department file the day President Kennedy was murdered. Commission members have been told this file was removed and locked in Schwartz' desk not long after Oswald's arrest was announced. Also that Schwartz and Abram Chayes, legal advisor of the State Department, conferred repeatedly that day.

—Full details of the granting of visas to Oswald and his Russian wife to come to the U. S. in 1962—after he spent three years in Russia. This aspect of the case involves a mysterious official in another government agency who reputedly had a hand in securing these visas and providing funds for Oswald's return. This money included $435.71 borrowed from the U. S. embassy in Moscow, which Oswald repaid between October, 1962, and January, 1963.

Better Weather Hoped For Tuesday; School Bonds Again On Ballot

It may not be as warm next Tuesday as it was Oct. 8 when the mercury went to 72 degrees, but other than that, things will be about the same for San Rafael voters.

They will be asked again to vote on two bond issues for elementary school sites and buildings. The issues are precisely the same as they were Oct. 8; they total $3,970,000.

Despite the voter defeat of the measures, the San Rafael Board of Education decided to introduce them again unchanged. This decision was probably influenced by the same mysticism that is practiced by school boards across the country.

It is not astrology, exactly. The signs of the Zodiac have little, if anything, to do with the matter. It is simply the belief that there are good days and bad days.

OUR BOARD of education decided that Oct. 8 was a bad day for school bonds. The day, incidentally, was a good day for tax increases. Voters approved a 50-cent increase in the high school district's general fund tax rate.

Although the school board made no change in its financial proposals, they have made some changes in voting conditions. Instead of the 10 polling places in the election on the bad day there will be 18 polling places on Tuesday. And instead of the polls being open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. as they were on the bad day, the polls on Tuesday will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., an hour later.

The idea here is to make voting easier, to get a better turnout than there was on the bad day. Then only 27.5 per cent of the eligible voters in the elementary school district went to the polls.

BY CHANGING the conditions, the school board hopes a greater percentage will vote and that the increased turnout will swing the balance to victory.

On the bad day there was a 62.5 per cent vote in favor of the $3,300,000 bond program and a 59.5 per cent in favor of the $670,000 bond program. Being bonds, 66.7 per cent was needed for passage.

School officials do not want to come to grips with the possibility that a bigger turnout might swing the vote in the other direction, bringing out more anti-bond voters than pro-bond voters. If that should happen, it will be another bad day.

ALL THIS, unfortunately, tends to confuse the real issue: whether the school bonds are needed. The $3,300,000 issue will finance general construction, additions and site purchases; the $670,000 will finance multi-purpose room construction.

After covering board of education meetings for several months, the only conclusion I can draw is that some financial support is desperately needed if the district is to keep up with growth. This is the only program members of the school board have proposed so far.

I hope Tuesday is a good day.

ART BUCHWALD

Cutting Husbands Down To Size Sometimes Has Unique Result

WASHINGTON—We went to see "Hello, Dolly," the new smash musical with Carol Channing, which has just wound up its Washington run before going to Broadway.

Although we have nothing but praise for the cast, the music, the costumes, and the staging, we can't say as much for the audience.

Particularly the lady who was seated behind us. She not only did her utmost to ruin the show for us, but she almost broke up our marriage.

The lady turned out to be one of those compulsive talkers who always seem to find out ahead of time what seat we've purchased and then buy their directly behind us.

THIS LADY loved the show. Every time Miss Channing sang a song, she commented on it to her husband. "Isn't she wonderful?" "Isn't she darling?" "What a lovely costume." "That's a fine song." And so on. Before the first act was over we were trying to climb the wall, which is very difficult in any theater.

"She's driving me crazy," we said to our wife.

"Don't you do anything silly," our wife warned us.

"I could kill her," we said. "That's not silly."

"Behave yourself," she said threateningly.

AS SOON as the first act curtain fell and we went out into the lobby, we said to our wife, "I'm going to tell her off."

"You can't," she said.

"Why not?"

"You'll embarrass me."

"How will I embarrass you if I tell her to shut up? Will she think any less of you if I ask her to keep quiet?"

"You'll make a spectacle of yourself," she said.

"That woman is spoiling the show for everyone around us. If I say something, everyone will be grateful. I could be a hero."

"If you say anything, you'll spoil the show for me."

"AND IF I don't say anything, I'll ruin it for myself. Why are wives always afraid their husbands are going to embarrass them? If you saw that woman in a department store at a sale, you wouldn't hesitate to knock her over to get to the counter. Why are you defending her in a theater?"

"She probably can't help herself," our wife said angrily.

"Neither can I. You would think her husband would tell her to shut up."

"Would you tell me to shut up if I talked during the show?"

"I certainly would," we said.

"That shows what kind of manners you have."

"What has that got to do with the woman behind us?"

"I wouldn't be surprised if you said something to her that she'd slap you in the face."

THE BELL RANG and we all returned to our seats.

As soon as Miss Channing came out, the woman started up again.

We turned around and said, "Would you please shut up so the rest of us can hear the show?"

The woman turned white, but not as white as our wife.

"George, that man insulted me," the woman said to her husband.

"Now you're in for it," our wife whispered.

The husband turned out to be about six foot one and weighed 200 pounds. After the show we started up the aisle and he followed us. As soon as we got to the door he spun us around and stuck out his hand. "Thanks a lot, mister. I didn't have the nerve to tell her myself."

Language Lab Grant To School

Marin Catholic High School is the proud recipient of a $8,500 foreign language laboratory donated by the Photo and Sound Co. of San Francisco.

More than 80 students will be able to use the 10 "labettes" at one time, according to Rev. Edward Dullea, principal.

Each set is composed of special headsets through which the students can hear their own voices as well as the program source which will be selected by the teacher.

The teacher can monitor each student, record his work and help him with pronunciation individually or in a group.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Feb 12, the 43rd day of 1964 with 323 to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The evening stars are Venus and Jupiter.

Those born today include Abraham Lincoln, 16th president of the United States, in 1809.

On this day in history:

In 1918, all theaters in New York were closed to save coal.

A thought for the day — Italian artist, inventor and scientist Leonardo da Vinci once said: "As a well-spent day brings happy sleep, so life well used brings happy death."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Pessimistic Play Brings Home Bacon In Today's Bridge Hand

The average bridge player has a touching faith in his own good luck. Bad things happen to other people, not to him.

The expert is a pessimist; he knows the goblins will get him if he doesn't watch out. So he does watch out.

Opening lead — ♠ Q

Our average friend wins the first trick with the ace of spades and embarks on a series of finesses. The diamond finesse loses to the king, and East takes the king of spades and leads the jack of clubs.

CLUB FINESSE

South tries the club finesse, losing to the king and eventually loses the heart finesse as well. Declarer loses, in all, one trick in each suit. Down one.

Only a very unlucky man would lose three finesses in the same hand. South points out that the odds were 7 to 1 against such a sad fate, and the opponents murmur a sympathetic word or two.

After all, they can afford to spare a little sympathy since South has tossed away a cold game.

SHOULD HOLD UP

South should hold up his ace of spades at the first trick. If spades are continued, South can take his ace and ruff a spade in dummy. This puts him in dummy to try the heart finesse.

West can take the king of hearts and can shift to diamonds, but declarer plays it safe by taking the ace of diamonds, drawing another round of trumps, and then resuming the diamonds.

By the time East can lead a club, South can afford to step up with the ace of clubs and lead a trump to dummy to discard the rest of his clubs on good diamonds.

SECOND TRICK

The procedure would be much the same if West shifted to a diamond at the second trick. South would win in dummy with the ace of diamonds and take the heart finesse.

By the time East could get around to leading clubs South would not need that finesse.

The pessimistic expert would expect all three finesses to lose and would work out a plan to make the contract in spite of this ferociously bad luck.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade.
